

BODY OF VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN LAID TO REST

WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES BODY IS LAID
AWAY IN FOREST HILL CEMETERY

President Taft, Members of His Cabinet, Justices of the United States Supreme Court, Senators and Members of the House of Representatives, and Other Friends, Assembled To Pay Final Tribute to Statesman's Memory.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 2.—With simple but impressive ceremonies the body of Vice President James S. Sherman was laid away this afternoon in a crypt within a beautiful mausoleum in Forest Hill cemetery. Under a canopy covering that served as a shield against a chilly November wind were gathered the Sherman family, President Taft, members of his cabinet, Justices of the United States supreme court, senators and members of the house of representatives and a few intimate friends and business associates of the vice president, while without a throng who had gathered to pay a final tribute reverently until the strains of "Asleep in Jesus" by the Hayden male chorus, which marked the conclusion of the services, had died away.

President Taft listened with bowed head and tear-dimmed eyes as Dr. M. W. Stryker, president of Hamilton college, read the brief eulogistic service and the Rev. Louis H. Holden, pastor of Christ church, of which Mr. Sherman was a member, offered prayer. A mixed quartette sang "Good Night," and when the selection by the male chorus had been concluded, the president gazed a moment at the flower-covered casket of his friend and slowly made his way to a waiting automobile, accompanied by former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, Attorney General Wickham and Major Rhodes, his military aide.

Earlier in the afternoon there had been private services at the Sherman home and the public obsequies at the First Presbyterian church, both of which were attended by the president. The special train, bearing the president and party, arrived in Utica at 1:30 o'clock and the president at once went to the late vice president's home to offer his sympathy in person to Mrs. Sherman and others of the bereaved family. He remained for the services there which were conducted by Dr. Holden, and then went to the church, where the funeral services were held.

Crowds began to gather in the vicinity of the church before noon and when the doors finally were opened the large auditorium with its spacious galleries were quickly filled, except those seats which had been reserved for the members of the family and President Taft and the congressional party, government officials and intimate friends of the vice president. Details of police and firemen were on hand to keep the crowds in check, and had difficulty clearing the streets for the cortege which had formed at the Sherman home. The congressional party was followed by the president and those that called on Mrs. Sherman and with him sat Attorney General Wickham, Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor, former Vice President Fairbanks and Chairman Hilges of the Republican national committee.

Immediately in their rear were seated Justices Hughes and Pitney of the United States supreme court; Senators Crane, Curtis, Penrose, Oliver, Bacon, Clapp, Weeks and O'Gorman, Secretary Bennett of the senate and Representatives Dalzell, Calder, Jones, Wright, Fairchild and other members of the national house. Senator Root was one of the honorary pall bearers and sat somewhat apart from the other national officials.

Governor Dix was unable to be present, but sent E. C. Dekay, his military secretary, as his representative. The casket, covered with violets and lilies of the valley, was borne into the church at 2:30 and following it came Mrs. Sherman in mourning leaning on the arm of her son, Richard. She was accompanied by other members of the Sherman family. All were given seats in close proximity to the casket. The Mendelssohn funeral march was played in silence as the bearers made their way to the front. Numerous floral offerings formed an impressive feature.

These consisted largely of beautifully and appropriately designed wreaths and with them the altar was completely covered. The senate sent an immense piece composed largely of orchards while the house offering was of white roses.

There were wreaths from the National Republican league, the employees of the Utica Trust and Deposit company of which Mr. Sherman was president; the Beta Sigma Phi, the local Republican committee, the German ambassador, the Spanish, Salvarian, Haitian, Dominican and Guatemalan legations; Secretary Knox and many others.

The altar, gallery and walls of the church were draped in black broadcloth and rich purple, and an American flag was festooned about the front of the altar, but almost hidden by the mass of flowers. The religious services conducted by President Stryker were as limited in extent as it was possible to make them. They consisted of scriptural readings and a few words of appreciation and prayer, all closing with a benediction by the Rev. Mr. Brokaw, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The hymns were: "Lead Kindly Light," "Abide With Me," and "Nearer My God to Thee." The entire congregation joined in the last hymn and this formed a most impressive part of the service. President Taft and several of the senators participated in the singing.

Dr. Stryker made no effort to enter upon an eulogy of his deceased friend, but confined himself to a few words of praise of the vice president's character and of farewell.

The funeral party left the church as it had entered, to the music of Mendelssohn's march, the audience standing as the casket was borne out. Mrs. Sherman was supported on either side by her sons as she walked slowly down the aisle. Her carriage preceded that of President Taft in the long line that made its way to the cemetery through streets lined with people. There was no attempt at display, and the procession was not even headed by a detail of police. Major Rhodes, in the uniform of an artillery officer, lent the only color to the sombre hues of the presidential party. Thousands of persons were at the cemetery in advance of the cortege and watched silently as the long procession wound its way up to the hill.

After the service at the tomb, President Taft and party were hurried in automobiles direct to the railroad station.

The president's private car had been side-tracked and a crowd watched him as he sat at the window and talked with Mr. Fairbanks and others. When the congressional special, to which the car was attached, pulled out of the station at 5:14 o'clock, there were subdued cheers for the president, who bowed his acknowledgments.

Business in Utica was practically suspended during the hours of the funeral and several factories closed at noon and did not re-open. At the hour of the funeral all the electric cars were stopped for five minutes.

WILL CHOOSE NO SUCCESSOR UNTIL AFTER THE ELECTION

After Conference Between President Taft and Members of His Cabinet It Was So Officially Announced.

New York, Nov. 2.—After a conference between President Taft and several members of his cabinet and Republican senators and representatives it was officially announced here tonight that no successor to Vice-President Sherman on the Republican ticket would be selected until after election.

Governor Hadley of Missouri is known to be favored by President Taft and many of the leaders.

Conferences today on the special train which brought the president and several party leaders back to New York from the Sherman funeral in Utica, developed opposition to the selection at this time of a man for second place on the ticket. Some of the leaders believed it would be poor politics to name a man who might not carry his own state and who would therefore go before the electoral college without any vote to start with. Although President Taft was understood to have approved early announcement of a vice-presidential choice he was won over to the other view and it was said tonight that the national committee at its meeting November 12th, will make the selection.

The president remained in New York tonight and will leave tomorrow night for Cincinnati. Although he has no speeches scheduled for the trip it is probable that he will appear on the rear platform of his private car at many places and say a last word to his fellow Ohioans before election.

WOULD BALLOT BY TELEGRAPH.
Detroit, Nov. 2.—It was stated today by Alexander J. Groesbeck, chairman of the Michigan State Republican committee, that the Republican National committee had requested the committee throughout the country to ballot by telegraph for their vice-presidential choice to succeed the late James S. Sherman on the Republican ticket. National committee Charles B. Warren of Michigan has announced that he favors Governor Hadley of Missouri.

"SILENT TREATMENT" BRINGS CONFESSION

KRAMER, ALIAS CONWAY, TELLS HIS STORY OF MISS SINGER'S MURDER

Says He Killed Woman In Self Defense After She Had Rushed at Him With Razor—Story Differs Little From Wife's.

CHICAGO, NOV. 2.—Broken by 36 hours "silent treatment," the humane, but effective third degree devised by Captain Max Nootbaer of the Chicago police, Charles N. Kramer confessed after this that he killed Sophia Singer, the Boston belle, found murdered here Monday night. Kramer, known by his stage name of Conway, in the final confession that cleared up the murder mystery, added a new feature to the statement given yesterday by his wife. He said that he struck Miss Singer down in self-defense when she attacked him with a razor after he had rebuked her for making, he said, a suggestion to Mrs. Kramer to go out and meet some men. Kramer exonerated his wife from all blame in connection with the crime.

Kramer, the former clown, high diver and circus acrobat, held out 24 hours longer than his wife. He paced his cell all night begging for a word from the turnkeys who refused to say a word. Today Captain Nootbaer began systematic nagging of the man that aggravated his silence. Finally Kramer broke into tears and begged to be allowed to tell his story.

Kramer's story differed from his wife's only in the detail that he claimed self-defense in justification. He said that he never meant to kill Miss Singer and that he bound and gagged her to prevent her making an outcry. He said that he took $35 from Miss Singer's purse and two suits of clothes belonging to W. R. Worthen, Miss Singer's friend. He and his wife fled through the alley he said, hoping to get away before Miss Singer revived and believing that she would not want to come in to publicity by prosecuting them.

Kramer after promising to tell was confronted by his wife. He demanded that she tell him she had confessed. Then he declared:

"Yes, I did it. I killed Sophia Singer. Kramer said that during a quarrel following the woman's immoral suggestion she attempted to strike him with a door-knob and that when he wrested it from her she picked up a razor from his dresser and rushed at him.

He struck her down with the door-knob and she fell, the razor dropping from her grasp.

Kramer and the woman were held charged with the murder. Worthen is detained as a witness.

CALLS "BREEDING PLACE FOR STRIKE BREAKERS"

Is So Referred to in Resolution Adopted by International Ass'n of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

Indianapolis, Nov. 2.—Extracts from the Iron Workers' union magazine concerning a demand made upon the American Federation of labor to raise a tax of one cent a month on all its members to unionize Los Angeles, Cal., three years before James B. McNamara, a brother of the secretary of the iron workers union, blew up the Los Angeles Times building were read by the government at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

One abstract was a copy of a resolution adopted by the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers in Sept., 1907. It asserted that Los Angeles was "a breeding place for strike-breakers of all crafts and trades" and added "if unionism is crushed in Los Angeles, it will be but a short time before the same methods are applied to other cities. The struggle is national in scope and should be financed by the American Federation of Labor."

Many letters which the government charged, implicate the 45 men now on trial were read by District Attorney Charles F. Miller.

CASE MAY GO TO JURY MONDAY.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Louise Lindloff, the clairvoyant and trance medium charged with the poisoning of her son Arthur, may know the jury's verdict Monday before night-fall. She heard the prosecuting attorney sum up the evidence today and her own counsel begin his reply. He will finish Monday morning after the final address for the state by Assistant State's Attorney Claude Smith. Judge Windes will give the case to the jury.

RECOVER BODY FROM RUINS.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—The second body found this afternoon in the ruins of the Berlin hotel, which was destroyed by fire early today was identified tonight as that of Mrs. Helen Ables, former actress and divorced wife of James O. Berles.

Mrs. C. K. McFadden who occupied a room adjoining Mrs. Ables' apartment has not been seen since the fire. The ruins are being searched tonight for her body.

WILL PARADE TOMORROW.
New York, Nov. 2.—The Wilson-McCormack parade to have been held in New York this afternoon, but cancelled because of the funeral of Vice-President Sherman will be held on Monday night it was announced this afternoon.

WOMAN CONFESSES TO TWO MURDERS

SURRENDERS TO LOS ANGELES
POLICE AND TELLS STORY

Declares She Murdered Two Women in Missouri by Poisoning—Story is accurate as to Dates and is Given Credence in Sedalia.

LOS ANGELES, NOV. 2.—Pansy Ellen Lesh, 24 years old, who said she had just been deserted by her husband late today, surrendered herself to the police, declaring that she had murdered two women in Missouri, one at Green Ridge and another at Sedalia. The victims, she said, were Mrs. Quaintance and Mrs. Coe. Both were slain by the administration of poison.

Mrs. Lesh told the police that she was taken from the Orphan Home society in St. Louis when she was 13 years old by Quaintance family at Green Ridge. In June, 1904, she said Mrs. Quaintance became ill and that Mrs. Lesh, is said to have declared, she put a capsule containing poison in some medicine and gave it to Mrs. Quaintance, who died the next morning.

The next spring she left for Sedalia and went to the home of Mrs. Coe, a widow on Sixth street. In August of that year, she said, she put poison in a glass of beer and gave it to Mrs. Coe, who died the next morning.

Leaving the household the woman said, she drifted from place to place, finally going to Paducah, Ky., where on September 3, 1907, she was married to Lesh. They went to East St. Louis, Ill., to live. In October of this year she and her husband came to Los Angeles. According to her story to the police, she was deserted by Lesh soon after their arrival. The police are holding the woman pending an investigation.

Story Appears Credible.
Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 2.—When the confession of Pansy Ellen Lesh at Los Angeles, in which she claims to have caused the deaths by poison of Mrs. E. M. Quaintance of Green Ridge, Miss Pettis county, and Mrs. E. L. Coe of Sedalia, was reported to the local authorities, they recall that both women died under circumstances that, while not investigated at the time, were nevertheless suspicious. No one, however, was suspected seriously enough to be accused.

Credence is given the Lesh woman's story by reason of the accuracy of the dates. Mrs. Lesh's maiden name is Pansy Hastings, who lived at home of Colonel Quaintance in Green Ridge in 1903 and 1904. She was sent to Green Ridge from a St. Louis orphanage. After living at the Quaintance home a few months she and Mrs. Quaintance quarrelled over an alleged intimacy between the girl and Col. Quaintance. The girl is said to have knocked Mrs. Quaintance down and to have seriously injured her. In June, 1904, the woman died of peritonitis. The physician said she would in time have died from the effects of the injury sustained during her quarrel with the girl. The girl continued as housekeeper for Quaintance. Soon after his wife's death the colonel committed suicide. She was returned to the St. Louis orphanage. A few weeks later she came to Sedalia to live at the home of Mrs. Coe, who was secretary of the board of charities of Pettis county. The girl remained here until the sudden death of Mrs. Coe in July, 1905.

The attending physicians announced that Mrs. Coe died of cholera morbus and her death was not investigated. The girl left soon afterward and no one here knew where she had gone.

Inmate of Home in 1903.
St. Louis, Nov. 2.—The records of the Christian Orphans' Home of St. Louis show that Pansy Hastings was an inmate there in 1903. Her father's name was Hiram S. Hastings, but his address is not known. Pansy Hastings was sent to the home of E. M. Quaintance of Green Ridge, Mo.

WOODROW WILSON ISSUES STATEMENT

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE AP-PEARS CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

Declares He Does Not Doubt Voter's Choice at Election Tuesday—"Issue Is Now Clearly Made Up and Goes to People."

New York, Nov. 2.—The following statement by Governor Woodrow Wilson, Democratic candidate for the presidency, was issued today through the headquarters of the Democratic national committee.

"The issue is now clearly made up and goes to the people. I, for one, do not doubt the verdict. The voters must take one or another of three choices."

"First, intrust the government to the regular Republican party again which always begins a campaign with promises of action, and then always at the end, draws back and warns against change, desiring to attempt anything at all, for fear it should not satisfy those who control credit and whom it has so long permitted to act as trustees for the people in every matter of policy."

"Second, place the guidance of their affairs in the hands of men who are searching about for some new way in which to perform old duties all along plain and imperative which can only be performed without the invention of new methods, for example, without shifting the whole energies initiative of the law to the executive branch of the government."

"Third, go forward, without postponement or experiment or confusion to effect the reforms which the whole country waits for, and which all parties profess to believe necessary, through the instrumentality of a great established and undivided party, clear and explicit as to its purposes, willing to effect them by the ordinary process of legislation, willing to be guided by the common council of the nation as a whole the plain people with the rest, regardless of every interest, the little as well as the big, because connected with every interest by sympathy and comprehension, and soberly determined to obey the voice of thoughtful men everywhere by a carefully considered course of moderate yet courageous reform."

"The mere statement of the choices is a prediction. We shall trust ourselves and let the little groups of discoverers who would have us restore powers in them, learn in their turn and at their leisure, to trust us also."

(Signed) "Woodrow Wilson."

PENNSYLVANIA THE BATTLEGROUND

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 2.—For the first time in her history Pennsylvania has this year supplanted New York, Ohio, Indiana and other of the so-called doubtful states as the real battleground of a presidential election. For almost half a century the only question in connection with an election in the Keystone state has been as to the size of the Republican majorities. Today, a fact almost without precedent, real doubt exists as to which one of the three leading candidates for president will obtain the electoral vote of this state.

Eight party columns with presidential electors and one blank column will be on the Pennsylvania ballot next Tuesday. The electoral tickets will appear in the following order: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Bull Moose, Industrialist, Roosevelt Progressive and Washington. The Washington, Bull Moose and Roosevelt Progressive electoral tickets are the same, and the Republican and Washington state tickets are identical. The Keystone party did not nominate an electoral ticket and the Lincoln electoral and state tickets were withdrawn. The state ticket, however, the state election is for state treasurer, auditor general and four congressmen-at-large.

REPORT IS CONFIRMED.

Havana, Nov. 2.—Some doubt was today cast upon the victory of General Mario Menocal and Enrique Jose Varona, conservative candidates for the presidency and vice-presidency, respectively, by reports from all parts of the island. BATTLE HOURLY EXPECTED BRINGING WAR TO CLOSE

POWERS AWAIT BATTLE WHICH WILL FORCE THE TURK TO HIS KNEES

Adrianople and Salonika are Surrounded by Enemies—Rumor of Fall of Adrianople is Persistent but not Authentic—Turkish Army in Macedonia cut off From All Sides.

LONDON, NOV. 2.—After the four days' decisive battle of the war there is calm for a few hours, and no news comes from the field of the recent fighting. Constantinople officials still refuse to permit messages dealing with the Turkish defeat to be sent out of the capital. However, the Ottoman will be able to pull itself together and whether it will make a stand in the forts outside of Constantinople are questions unanswered.

The Serbian advance toward Saloniki continues. The Greeks claim to be pushing steadily forward but messages insist that the Greek army has met with a repulse, that the crown prince ran away and that the Greek position is precarious.

The Serbian advance toward Adrianople and Salonika are now surrounded by enemies. The Turkish army in Macedonia is cut off from all sides. Serbians hold all of old Serbia and are administering the government from the ancient capital Uskup. Reports of massacres by the retreating Turks, with barbarous details are piling up. Diplomacy has done nothing in the direction of stopping or limiting the war. Powers now await the expected final battle which will force the Turk to his knees. The allies proclaim their determination to hold what they conquer.

European sentiment appears to endorse their ambitions if Austria interest can be arranged. All the sailors of the British destroyers and submarine squadrons on leave have suddenly been ordered to return. The action of the British admiralty has caused a stir, but it may have no relation to the war.

Are Called to Their Ships.
Chatham, Nov. 2.—Great excitement was caused here today by receipt of urgent admiralty telegrams, recalling officers and men to their ships. The authorities are reticent, but it is believed the orders relate to the Battleship Russell and Duncan now in the Midway.

Passes Through Strait.
Gibraltar, Nov. 2.—The British Cruiser Dartmouth passed here today bound for the Levant. The third battle squadron will arrive from England early tomorrow and will proceed eastward after a stay of only one hour.

Thirty-five Vessels Ready.
Devonport, Nov. 2.—The officers and men attached to the seventh flotilla have been ordered to return to their ships Saturday at the latest. With the parent ships and submarines, altogether 35 vessels are affected. It is believed their destination is the Near East.

Crew Ordered Aboard.
Plymouth, Nov. 2.—All officers and men of the war cruiser here today were ordered to be aboard their ships at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. Later the admiralty despatch ordered those of the fifth destroyer flotilla aboard their ships at 11 o'clock Saturday evening.

May Be Tried By Court Martial.
Constantinople, Nov. 2.—It is reported that Prince Ariz, who commanded the Turkish cavalry at the battle of Iric-Kilis and 19 other Turkish officers, will be brought to Constantinople for trial by court martial.

An official despatch from Saloniki this evening says the Turkish forces which started from Saloniki have formed a junction with the troops at Vardari. A column from Yenidiah has succeeded in dislodging the Greeks who occupied a position at Vortek near Voden in Macedonia. Numerous prisoners and ten guns were captured. Turkish forces, according to the advice here, are coming from Monastir and turned the Greeks under the Greek crown prince.

Congratulates Greek Army.
Athens, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the German emperor has sent a letter to his sister, Princess Sophie, the wife of Crown Prince Constantine, which has been communicated to Crown Prince, congratulating the Greek army for the courage it has displayed. Despatches from osani say that when the Greeks arrived at the village of Ineli, a white flag was hoisted. The Greeks suspecting treachery and sent forward scouts on whom the Turks opened fire. The Greeks then surrounded and burned the village. One hundred prisoners were taken.

The admiral in command of the Greek fleet reports cruising off the Dardanelles awaiting the appearance of Turkish warships.

Turks Beat Hasty Retreat.
Sofia, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the Bulgarians surrounded Torgat Sheker Pasha and a Turkish division on the heights east of Scral. After desperate fighting the Turks broke the Bulgarian circle and fled to Tebalah. In this battle south of Lulch-Burgas the Bulgarians captured eighty cannon and 140 wagons of ammunition.

ing Views Battle Field.
Sofia, Nov. 2.—King Ferdinand yesterday visited the height of Yuracha, from which he viewed the battle field and forts around Adrianople. Subsequently he proceeded over the advanced positions. Everywhere the king was enthusiastically cheered by the troops. The royal train stopped at Mustapha Pasha, where the king attended a Thanksgiving service for the Bulgarian victory before Lulch-Burgas.

Blockade 140 Miles Long.
Athens, Nov. 2.—The blockade around Epirus now extends for 140 miles. Late reports say that the Greeks and Serbians have effected a junction and are advancing on Saloniki.

Fall of Adrianople Rumored.
Sofia, Nov. 2.—Persistent rumors of the fall of Adrianople caused great crowds to assemble around the war office throughout the day. There were also reports that the Bulgarians have captured six Turkish trains near Demotica. No official confirmation of either of these reports could be obtained.

Bulgarian aviators have made a number of flights over Adrianople and the last authentic information is to the effect that the bombardment of the forts continues.

Greek Naval Maneuvers.
Constantinople, Nov. 2.—A telegram from Skutari, dated several days ago, reports that the Montenegrins in one of their assaults against the town, lost 2,000 men killed or wounded. It is reported from avila, on the Aegean sea, that a Greek squadron has been sighted off Enos at the mouth of the Mariza river. The Greek warships were conveying a number of transports and it is believed a landing is contemplated. Fighting continues along a whole line in the eastern theater of war, but no details have been made public.

TENNESSEE TO VOTE FOR SENATOR.
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—A direct election and a primary election will be the rather unique combination in which the voters of Tennessee will combine when they go to the polls next Tuesday. The direct election, as in other states, will be for presidential electors, representatives in congress, governor and state railroad commissioner. The primary election will be for the selection of the Democratic candidates for United States senator, and several state officials below the governorship.

In the senatorial race former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson, "the stormy petrel of Tennessee politics," is the leading figure. Judge Floyd Estill of Winchester and Judge Joseph Jones of Dresden are measuring lances with Ex-Governor Patterson for the place that was filled by Ben Taylor and is now occupied by Newell Sanders as a result of the Tennessee fusion movement that made the last Tennessee general assembly non-Democratic and elected a Republican governor for the first time in nearly forty years.

On account of the prominence that Mr. Patterson had in connection with the Carmack-Cooper case and the defeat of the local option so strongly urged by him, there were many Democrats including numerous friends, who did not think it advisable for him to get into active politics so early again. Many Republicans and Democrats alike predict that the candidacy of Ex-Governor Patterson will result in the election of another fusion general assembly and the consequent election of a Republican or fusion Democratic as United States senator.

HOLD RACES SATURDAY.
Chicago, Nov. 2.—The management of the Mineral Springs race track at Porter, Ind., put on five races this afternoon and then declared the meeting at an end for this season. Today is the day originally scheduled to conclude the annually 15 days of racing.

The management said that it would give 45 days of racing next year beginning about June 15. The attendance at today's racing was meagre.

A GREAT CAMPAIGN

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 2.—"It has been a great campaign," said Colonel Roosevelt tonight. "I do not know that there has ever been a campaign in this country like it."

The work of the campaign was almost at an end, and Colonel Roosevelt gave little time today to politics. There remain only two more speeches on Monday to the "home folks" of Nassau county, which the colonel desires to make largely for sentimental reasons. Monday afternoon he will go by automobile to Mineola, the county seat, and in the evening he will speak to his fellow townsmen of Oyster Bay.

AGED COUPLE ASPHYXIATED.
Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 2.—F. Marion Owens, 80 years old and his wife 75, were found dead in their home here today. They had been asphyxiated by fumes from a coal heating stove.

BROOK & BRECKON

WILLING TO SELL WATER TO CITY

WATER COMPANY MAKES SUGGESTION FOR COMPROMISE OF LITIGATION.

In Communication to the City Council Proposition Is Outlined For Company to Deliver Water in the Reservoir at an Agreed Rate—City Would Retain Control of Present Plant and All Mains—Council Will Consider Matter After Exact Rate Is Fixed in Offer.

A number of members of the Jacksonville Business Men's association met Saturday morning to discuss a compromise proposition submitted by the Jacksonville Water Works Company to the city council. The suggested compromise is in effect that the Water Company is willing to enter into a contract with the city to sell water to the city, delivered in the reservoir, the city to retain full control of the mains and present water works. Colonel Mackey of the Water company was present and stated that the company was ready to enter into such an arrangement if anything like interest could be earned on the investment. The business men present passed a resolution asking the city council to investigate the proposition made to them by the company.

In the afternoon Colonel Mackey met with Mayor Davis and the commissioners met in an informal way and the council suggested to Colonel Mackey that the proposition would have full consideration if the company will look into the matter and submit absolute figures as to what price they will sell water to the city. Colonel Mackey agreed to get the proposition into this form. The commission, through Mr. Brennan, is now figuring on the cost of producing water from the city plant. To get further accurate information Mr. Brennan will keep the records for this month and by Dec. 1, the council will be ready to figure with definiteness on the water company's proposition.

The proposition before the Business Men and which had previously been submitted to the council was transmitted to City Attorney Haingrove by Messrs. Worthington & Reeve. In their letter with the proposition Messrs. Worthington and Reeve said:

"In submitting this proposition it is, of course, with the understanding that it is a compromise proposition and that nothing said or done, either in writing or verbally, shall affect the rights of either party to the negotiation in the litigation now pending, or which may hereafter be pending between any of the parties in interest and the city of Jacksonville."

The proposition as submitted by the water company is as follows: Franklin, Pa., Oct. 12, 1912. To the Honorable the Mayor and City Commissioners of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois.

Gentlemen: At an informal conference held at the mayor's office on July 22, 1912, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any basis could be agreed upon for a settlement of the controversies between the said city and the Jacksonville Water Works company, certain suggestions were made by Paul Hansen of the state water survey and others as a possible basis for bringing about a settlement that would be satisfactory to all the parties concerned.

It was the understanding of those who represented the Water Works company on the occasion referred to that one of the matters agreed upon at that time was that your honorable body would at an early date take up the old contract or ordinance between the city and the Water Works company, section by section, in executive session, and indicate to the Water Works company the points as to which changes were desired on the part of the city. As nothing has been heard from the city authorities since that time, it is feared that there has been some misunderstanding, and we have recently taken up the matter with a number of those interested in the Water Works company, we hereby with their approval, beg leave to submit the following for your consideration, with the hope that it may speedily result in reaching a satisfactory conclusion.

First, in regard to the suggestion of Mr. Hansen that the Water Works company should temporarily furnish water to the city "on a per unit quantity basis to be agreed upon pending a settlement of the present litigation and a permanent settlement of the water question—the city in the meantime to retain its system of mains and collect water rents, paying the agreed price to the water company." We would state that the Water Works company does not wish to enter into any temporary arrangement, believing that some basis for a permanent settlement should be reached by a friendly negotiation.

We would say, however, that while the Water Works company does not wish to make a temporary arrangement on such "per unit quantity basis," it is willing to enter into a permanent arrangement to supply the city with water delivered into the city reservoir on a "per unit quantity basis," the city to retain its mains, pumping plant, etc., and pay a stipulated price for the water, provided reasonable terms can be agreed upon and provided further that a legal method can be found for such a permanent arrangement or settlement.

Second, If it should be found that an agreement cannot be reached on the above basis or on a basis of substantially the same character, then the Water Works company, in order that a desirable settlement may be reached, is willing to make concessions upon all the points suggested by Mayor Davis and Mr. Haingrove at the said conference. Namely:

JAMES S. McCULLOUGH.

The only soldier of the Civil war on the Republican state ticket, is a candidate for state auditor. He has a record for efficiency and honesty in the public service that has gained him the respect and confidence of all classes of Illinois citizens.

Mr. McCullough is a candidate for state auditor, a position he has filled with exceptional satisfaction for a term of years.

His supervision of state banks and building and loan associations, at which points he comes intimately into contact with the man in the every day walks of life, has been so carefully closed and efficient that the people have had such confidence in the auditor's conduct of these departments that the number of state banks has increased in ten years from 179 to 584.

Their total resources from $281,481,190 to $826,984,733. Their capital from $37,660,777 to $122,731,656.

The total deposits from $242,889,006 to $690,547,473. Their savings deposits from $95,155,290 to $282,734,690.

The number of savings depositors from 352,305 to 915,750. The interest paid to depositors during 1911-12 was $8,281,581.

During the last ten years there have been no failures of building and loan associations due largely to the close supervision and the enforcement of the model Illinois law by State Auditor McCullough.

Charles Rutledge of this county is one of the efficient examiners under Mr. McCullough.

"A MODERN EVE" COMING

The interest aroused in the forthcoming engagement of Mort H. Singer's famous musical comedy, "A Modern Eve," which will be seen at the Grand on Wednesday, November 13, is remarkable and this tuneful comedy is assured of splendid patronage on this date. Mr. Singer had promised this operetta to Mgr. Hunt earlier this season but when he took into consideration the excellent patronage afforded his previous attractions by the patrons of the Grand theater, he decided that it would have to be his Chicago company that would be sent to Jacksonville to present it. Accordingly the patrons of the Grand theater are going to get just what they want, the entire Chicago company, the one that has been presenting "A Modern Eve" there for the past half year.

The Republican nominee for state's attorney has always stood for a fair, impartial, and just consideration of the American citizen's rights.—Political Advertisement.

Former Governor Richard Yates will make an address in behalf of the Republican cause tomorrow night at Armory hall. You are invited to be present.

In the Republican candidate for state's attorney the voters of Morgan county have a self made man. Over twenty years ago Fred L. Gregory began teaching music to defray expenses and continued for some ten years by this means to work his way through high school and Illinois college and took both departments of the work at Brown's Business college; later receiving the scholarship to Northwestern university law school in Chicago where he attended until admitted to practice before the supreme court of Illinois.

For more than ten years Fred L. Gregory has been reading and practicing law and during part of this time has been attorney for the city of Jacksonville under two administrations.

If elected state's attorney you will find that Gregory will prosecute in the name of the people of the state of Illinois to the letter of the law. This is his record in the past and this is the first time he has ever asked for a county office and before soliciting your support he has endeavored to qualify himself for the position to which his friends have nominated him.

You will make no mistake in voting for Fred L. Gregory for state's attorney.—Political Advertisement.

CHICAGO IS DEFEATED
BY U. OF WISCONSIN

Spectacular Contest Goes Against Maroons 30 to 12—Game Rough and Penalties Numerous.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—The University of Chicago football team was eliminated from consideration in the western collegiate conference championship race by the University of Wisconsin's speed, and powerful eleven today, the scoring being Wisconsin, 30; Chicago, 12. The game was one of the most spectacular ever played here, abounding in forward passes, speedy end runs, shifts, tackles, back and other intricate formations.

At such tactics, Chicago had a decided advantage but this was more than overcome by the powerful drive of the Wisconsin backs in cross-backs and by Gillett's ability to turn the Maroon ends behind efficient interference. It was its inability to gain by straight football that cost Chicago heavily.

Three times the visitors were stopped inside Wisconsin's 5-yard line and on four occasions they lost the ball on downs when another foot would have made the fourth down for them.

Wisconsin's line outcharged its heavier opponents. Butler was especially effective at right tackle.

A great crowd saw the contest and cheered mightily. Whenever the home goal was threatened the Wisconsin rooters rose and sang their "Toast to Alma Mater." Except for one occasion the team instantly responded and that time it was shaken by an unexpected fumble by Gillett, which resulted in the visitors' first touchdown. The game was rough to a degree and penalties were numerous. The most severe, when Norgren, Chicago's punter, was sent from the field for rough work and his team penalized half the distance to its goal. Wisconsin scored easily after that. Scantion, who wore himself out stopping charges at the line, Gillett and Torney, who dodged and twisted for long gains, and Pierce and Desjardins were the bright stars of the day.

Nebraska 7; Missouri 0.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 2.—Outweighed 14 pounds to the man and outplayed in the last half, the Missouri state university football team held the Nebraska state university to one touch down and a goal in the last quarter. The final score was Nebraska 7; Missouri 0. In the first quarter Missouri played the best ball, getting within striking distance of Nebraska's goal twice. An attempted pass and a failure on field goal blocked their chances. In the second quarter the two teams were evenly matched and Nebraska got to the five yard line, but failed on a field goal. The heavy field and the overweight of the Nebraskans began to tell in the third quarter, but the Missourians put up a scrappy game. In the last period of the game both teams started with the intention of scoring and opened up on trick and chance plays. On Missouri's 45 yard line, Nebraska opened up with a forward pass and failed on the first one but on the second made 25 yards. The heavy Nebraskans showed the Tigers back to the three yard line.

On a quarter back plunge through Missouri's right guard, Towle drew the first scoring blood by a touchdown. He, in turn kicked goal, Nebraska came back with superior quality of football, then, and pushed Missouri back twenty yards, but were checked for downs when stopped on the last plunge at the ten yard line. Late in the quarter Missouri began ground gaining but the whistle blew before they could get half way down the field.

Carlisle 34; Lehigh 14.
South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 2.—Carlisle's great Indian athlete James Thorpe was at his best in today's Carlisle-Lehigh football game which the Indians won 34 to 14. Thorpe scored four touch downs, one goal from touch down and a field goal a total of 28 points.

HARVARD VICTOR
OVER TIGER ELEVEN

PRINCETON MEETS DEFEAT AT
HANDS OF CRIMSON WAR-
RIORS FIRST TIME IN 25 YEARS.

Brickley Stars for Harvard, Makes
Place Kick From 47 Yard Line—
Was Injured in Last Few Minutes of Play and Carried From Field

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 2.—The drop kicking and line punting of Charles E. Brickley, backed by well drilled crimson teammates gained today in the stadium Harvard's football supremacy over Princeton after a lapse of a quarter of a century.

The score was Harvard 16; Princeton 6.

Brickley kicked two field goals and a goal from placement of 47 yards, and battered the Princeton line for longer gains than were made by any other player in either team. In addition he intercepted two Princeton forward passes and hammered his way to within striking distance of Tiger goal line, where Hardwick had the honor of carrying the ball over for the crimson's only touch down. Hardwick kicked goal.

In the play which resulted in Harvard's touchdown made in the last few minutes of the game Brickley was carried helpless from the field and may not resume play before the game with Yale three weeks hence.

The Princeton score was a result of Harvard's inability to fathom two beautifully executed forward passes which covered a total distance of 53 yards and resulted in a touch down by Walter.

The Tiger touch down came in the second period and up to that time Princeton had had a trifle the better of the contest. In the remaining periods the Tigers were never in Harvard's territory and played entirely on the defensive.

First Meeting Under New Rules.
The game was the first contest between so-called major teams under the newly revised rules. Both teams showed a variety of offense, although Harvard was not forced to uncover as many spectacular plays as Princeton.

The first period was a kicking duel between Felton of Harvard and DeWitt of Princeton. The honors were decidedly in favor of Felton. It was not until the second period that either team began to show versatility in attack. Harvard's varied offensive which was mostly on line plunges on a fake kick formation carried the ball 35 yards down the field to Princeton's three yard line. Ten of these yards were gained on two Tiger penalties. It was at this point that Brickley's stepping back to the 15 yard line kicked his first field goal and scored the first points of the game.

A few minutes later the Princeton offense was brought into action and the two forward passes were negotiated to the astonishment of the Harvard stands and to the wild enthusiasm of the Princeton supporters. On the second pass when Andrews hurled the ball 20 yards to Walter, the latter fell down twice in reaching the goal line. He was so far away from the line of scrimmage that only one Harvard player, Gardner was anywhere near him and the crimson quarter back was unable to make the tackle. In the kick-out for an attempt at goal Harvard blocked the ball and Princeton was prevented from scoring an additional point. The half ended with Princeton three points in the lead.

Makes Great Place Kick.

The third period had scarcely begun before Brickley tied the score by another field goal from the 15 yard line after the Princeton line had proved adamant against Harvard's rush, the crimson being held for four downs inside the five-yard line. A few minutes later Gardner, the Harvard quarter-back made a fair catch of a Princeton punt standing on the Tiger's 45 yard line with in three yards of mid-field. When Harvard announced the intention of having Brickley attempt a placement kick for goal, and the Princeton team was compelled to retire ten yards, few people in the stadium believed the Harvard half-back would be able to accomplish the feat. The wind was slightly against him but he was squarely in front of the goal posts. The vast audience was hushed into expectancy as Brickley without apparent effort drove his toe at the placed ball. The pigskin rose like a mortar shot, sped straight for the goal posts and crossed the bar with some yards to spare, while three-quarters of the crowd went seemingly wild with enthusiasm.

Princeton Weakens in Last.
Princeton weakened perceptibly in the last period, although invigorated at intervals by substitutes. But the crimson had solved the mystery of the Tiger forward passes and the Minnesota shift variations.

The passes attempted in this period were snatched from the air by the crimson backfield and turned into Harvard gains. DeWitt's punts lacked both distance and direction and the Tigers were gradually driven backward to their goal lines. Hardwick caught one Tiger forward pass on Princeton's thirty yard line and then Brickley was hammered against the Princeton defense, y his line punting ability he drove the Tigers back to their four yard line. Here Princeton made a magnificent stand and Brickley's waning strength was not sufficient to cover the distance of less than five yards to the goal line. He carried the ball to two yard line for the third down. On the next rush the Tiger team anticipated that Brickley would gain carry the ball and an avalanche of Princeton players poured on to the Harvard half back, but the ball had been given to Hardwick, and easily eluding the Tiger forwards he dashed over

MICHIGAN WINS BY TIMELY TOUCHDOWN

Make Touchdown and Goal in Last
Minutes of Play and Defeat South
Dakota, 7 to 6.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 2.—Securing a touchdown and goal in the last few minutes of play Michigan today defeated the University of South Dakota football team, 7 to 6. In a thrilling game, the first contest in which the two universities have ever participated.

A bad punt out by Sheeks after he had scored a touchdown for South Dakota in the second period lost the husky visitors the opportunity to hold the Wolverines to a tie. Held scoreless in the first quarter both eleven played desperate football in the next period and finally after an exchange of punts South Dakota secured the ball on Michigan's 40-yard line. Two forward passes neatly executed gained half the distance and Sheeks tore through for a touchdown.

Before Potts could recover Sheeks' erratic punt out, Michigan players had him blocked.
Back and forth waged the tide of battle until late in the final period when Michigan worked the ball well into Dakota's territory only to have a forward pass intercepted. Ferguson punted out of bounds on Dakota's 15-yard line and Michigan secured the ball. Using Thomson as the vortex of a terrific line attack the maize and blue warriors battered their way to Dakota's seven yard line, where Thomson's smashed through Downing for the tying score. Then Patterson, with the game hanging on his efforts, kicked goal.
Thomson and Sheeks were the individual stars.

Drake 33; Washington U. 13.
St. Louis, Nov. 2.—Drake university football team after scoring in each period ended its first game with the Washington university team here today with a score of 33 to 13. Six minutes after the play began Drake got six points on a touch down by Lansing who failed to kick goal. Washington then negotiated a successful forward pass and scored a touch down. Hawkeye kicked goal. Lansing got a place kick and made three points for Drake. Washington then got the ball on a blocked punt, but lost on a forced kick. After Saunders of Drake had dropped a goal from the field, Washington started a march down the field which stopped only after Milford took a forward pass from Morrell for a touch down. In the final period Washington slowed up and Drake managed by line bucking and forward passes to score two touch downs. Goal was kicked after each touch down by Saunders.

Indiana, 33; Earlham, 7.
Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 2.—Indiana defeated Earlham 33 to 7 here today in a listless game.

The Princeton goal line and Harvard's only touch down. When the players unmassed themselves, Brickley was found helpless on the ground and was carried to the locker house. He was attended by Dr. Nicholisi. Hardwick kicked the goal and a few minutes later the Harvard men celebrated the first crimson victory over one of the major teams within the walls of the stadium.

Capt. Wendell Out of Game.
The Harvard team played without the assistance of Captain Wendell, except for a few minutes, he being forced to retire early because of a wrenched ankle sustained in the game with Brown last week. This placed the burden of the line plunging on Brickley.

ILLINI MEETS
DEFEAT 13 TO 0

MINNESOTA SCORES TWO TOUCH
DOWNS ON STATE UNIVERSITY.

Hard Fight Goes Against Illinois—
Orange and Blue Hold Opponents
After First Half.

Minneapolis, Nov. 2.—Minnesota's football team today fought its way another step toward the "big nine" conference championship, defeating the Illini by a score of 13 to 0.

Touchdowns by McAlmon in the first and second quarters respectively and "Pinkie" Hayward's one kicked goal, tells the story of Minnesota's victory. Illinois came back strong in the second half and Minnesota practically played upon the defensive while both teams were forced to kick frequently.

Illinois and Minnesota in the second half tried the forward pass frequently, the former making good gains.

A number of times, however, passes on both sides were intercepted, Hayward and Shaughnessy making sensational runs on such plays. Shaughnessy, who took the place of kicker for Tollofson disqualified for the remainder of the season because of scholastic deficiency, did good work in that line but was not the equal of Silkman or Woolston. But once was Minnesota's goal really in danger, when in the fourth quarter when line smashes by Woolston and Senefelt carried the ball to Minnesota's one yard line. Minnesota held, however, and Shaughnessy kicked out safely.

Illini Make Good Start.

Illinois started like a whirlwind with the ball on Shaughnessy's poor kick-off marching down the field in line smashes, with forward passes on a side-line. On one of these the Illini made 25 yards on Minnesota's 15 yard line, the Gophers held, and on the fourth down obtained the ball on an incomplete forward pass. Minnesota started up the field with McAlmon, Erdall and Hayward making good gains. A fifteen yard penalty for holding however, on a third down gave the Illini the ball, but they were unable to make constant gains and the ball went back to Minnesota again. Erdall and McAlmon hammered the line for steady gains.

First down was made time and again and finally McAlmon carried the ball over from the one-yard line on a terrific plunge through center. Hayward failed to kick goal from a difficult angle. Silkman kicked off Hayward returned the ball 20 yards. McAlmon got away for a thirty yard run and the quarter ended with the ball in Minnesota's possession on the thirty yard line.

Score Second Touch Down.
Minnesota's started with gains but lost the ball on an intercepted forward pass on which Silkman made 15 yards. The Illini were unable to gain however and especially after a 15 yard penalty for holding and Silkman kicked to Hayward on the 25 yard line, who returned the ball 25 yards. The Illini finally secured the ball on their own 48 yard line, when Aldworth fumbled a forward pass on a try for a forward pass. Hoffman fumbled. Minnesota took the ball again. Erdall, McAlmon and Hayward marched down the field but Shaughnessy finally was compelled to kick to Silkman who was downed on Illini ten yard line. Woolston's kick was blocked Ostrom securing the ball. Illinois was penalized to the five-yard line and in two tries McAlmon went over at right-end. Hayward kicked goal. The half ended with the ball in Illinois possession on Minnesota's 43 yard line.

Come Back Strong.

Illinois in the third quarter came back with lots of "pep" Senefelt going in for Dillon.
Lawler took Erdall's place at right half. By a series of line smashes and forward passes the Illini went to Minnesota's ten yard line where Hayward intercepted a forward pass and made a forty yard run.

Shaughnessy finally kicked, Illinois getting the ball on its own 25 yard line and making 15 yards. Shaughnessy, however, intercepted a forward pass but Minnesota could not gain and kicked again. Minnesota intercepted a forward pass on Illinois 25 yard line and by forward passes and line bucks Minnesota carried the ball to the Illini five yard line where the quarter ended with the ball in Minnesota's possession. Hayward tried a drop kick from Illinois thirty yard line but failed. Illinois put the ball in play on its own thirty yard line but lost it on a fumble. Minnesota could not get in Illinois kicked to Minnesota's 20 yard line. Again Minnesota was compelled to kick but Illinois was penalized the ball going to Minnesota on downs. The Illinois got the ball on an intercepted forward pass again, Hayward intercepting a pass and carried the ball to his own 30 yard line. Minnesota lost on downs and Shaughnessy kicked, the ball being carried to Minnesota's eight yard line and on line bucks Minnesota held, Shaughnessy kicking out to Minnesota's 35 yard line. Shaughnessy intercepted a forward pass making 25 yards but tried a forward pass which was intercepted, the game ending with the ball in Illinois possession on its own 35 yard line.

Williams 24; Cornell 10.
Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Cornell was humbled by Williams today by the score of 24 to 10, after playing a brilliant game in the first half. The team seemed to go to pieces in the third and fourth periods and the Williams players scored three touch downs on three runs that averaged about 58 yards.

Knox College 36; Millikin 14.
Galesburg, Ill., Nov. 2.—Knox college won the football game with Millikin here today by a score of 36 to 14.

LYON STANDS ON HIS PUBLIC RECORD

Candidate for Legislature Unable to Make Canvass—Has Sent Concise Statement to Voters.

T. E. Lyon, representative in the general assembly in this district, during the past four years, is forced to give up all plans for an active personal campaign in his efforts to be re-elected to the legislature, and must remain in his home in obedience to the quarantine laws of this state because of diphtheria in his family.

While most of his friends feel confident of his re-election, Mr. Lyon remembers that the over confidence of his friends two years ago, reduced his vote by more than three thousand and he feels, that with the unsettled conditions that exist this year, the same degree of confidence might easily result in his defeat.

He is therefore sending out to the voters in this district the following concise statement of his record and will leave the balance of the campaigning to his friends in this district, and will cheerfully abide by the results, whatever they may be, on November 5th.

"As your representative in the general assembly in the past four years, I have never neglected my duty, either in attendance upon sessions or committee work.

Have voted for every sane progressive measure, honestly introduced.

Have kept faith with the people of this district.

As a Republican, I have worked and voted for the principles of the Republican party and all measures endorsed in its state and national platforms.

I consistently voted in 1909 for the people's primary choice for U. S. senator and will vote for their primary choice this year if re-elected.

If the record suits you—repeat the vote given me in the past, and I will repeat the record."

Thos. E. Lyon.

Upon learning that Representative Lyon has been quarantined in his home on account of diphtheria in his family, a number of representatives who have served with him in the legislature have written to the editor of the Springfield News, urging the advisability of Lyon's re-election. They are many in number and too long to be quoted in full but from them we have taken the following extracts:

"Mr. Lyon is one of the most valuable men in the legislature. He opposed the by-partisan organization of the house and his vote has never been in doubt in questions involving the best interests of the state."

Geo. H. Wilson, Representative, Quincy, Ill.

"He made a record in the house which could not be excelled both in honesty and efficiency. If only there were about an even hundred men like him in the lower house legislative work would be above suspicion or reproach."

Norman G. Flagg, Representative, Moro, Ill.

"I was a member of the Progressive Republican club, of the forty-seventh general assembly, which met in Mr. Lyon's office every week and know of his work for his district and the whole state. There was no more conscientious man in the house."

Ira J. Covey, Representative, Peoria, Ill.

"During the last session of the legislature there was formed, a club of thirty-two members of the Republican party, whose aim was to promote clean and progressive legislation. Meetings were held every week and sometimes oftener in Mr. Lyon's office, the result of the efforts of this organization, was the passage of wise and proper measures. Mr. Lyon was one of the most active and influential members of this organization. His record is clean, his character the very best and the good citizens of Sangamon and Morgan counties should re-elect him by an overwhelming vote."

Walter M. Provine, Representative, Taylorville, Ill.

NEW YORK STATE.

New York, Nov. 2.—Instead of winding up the New York state campaign with a rush of meetings Saturday night, as has been customary, the candidates for governor on the Democratic, Republican and Progressive tickets will carry the fight through without a cessation until late Monday night.

The three-cornered fight for the New York governorship has drawn presidential and vice-presidential candidates to the political forums and has divided the vote of the state so that predictions of the outcome are not as freely made as usual.

Job E. Hedges, Republican candidate; Representative William Sulzer, the Democratic candidate, and Oscar S. Straus, the Progressive candidate, have each made a vigorous campaign.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koons, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could get up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Alcott, druggist.

WILSON'S HOME STATE.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 2.—In Governor Wilson's own state of New Jersey, the fourteen electoral votes of which are claimed by Democrats, Republicans and Progressives, there will be decided also on Tuesday whether the next governor of the state should be a Democrat or a Republican. Should Governor Wilson win in the national election the next president of the senate will succeed him as governor upon his resignation and would continue in office until after the fall election of 1913. The present president of the senate is a Republican. The legislature at present is Republican by a majority of one.

United States Senator Briggs, Republican, is a candidate to succeed himself. William Hughes of Paterson, a former congressman, is the primary nominee of the Democrats. New Jersey will elect twelve congressmen this year.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—What has been the most eventful political campaign the United States has seen in years will terminate Tuesday, when the vote of the people will decide whether the Republican administration of William H. Taft is to have a renewal of its lease of power, or whether the Democrats, under Woodrow Wilson, or the new third party, under Theodore Roosevelt, will assume the reins of office.

On the same day the representatives who will sit in the sixty-third congress will be elected, also state legislatures that will have the selection of many United States senators. Twenty-nine states will elect governors, and the most of the others will choose minor state officers.

Wisconsin, Michigan, Kansas, Oregon and Arizona will vote on proposed constitutional amendments granting the right of suffrage to women. Numerous other states will vote on proposed amendments or laws of less general interest and importance. A proposal for state-wide prohibition is included in the thirty or more measures to be passed upon by the voters of Colorado. In Oklahoma the fight between Guthrie and Oklahoma City for the state capital will be determined by the voters.

Judge Staples of Danoke, who is to complete the trial of the men connected with the shooting up of the Carroll county courthouse and the killing of six persons of Hillsville last March will call the cases of Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards, the two remaining outlaws, in Wytheville, Va. next Thursday. Wesley Edwards will be tried first. Then will come the hearing of the case against Sidney Allen, who is regarded as the leader of the band of outlaws.

What promises to be another noted criminal case is to come up in the United States court at Chicago Wednesday, when George W. Fitzgerald former teller of the federal sub-treasury in Chicago, will be placed on trial on a charge of embezzling $173,000. This amount disappeared from the Chicago sub-treasury more than five years ago and never has been accounted for.

Saturday will see the annual celebration of Lord Mayor's day in London, when Sir David Burnett the Lord Mayor-elect, will be installed in office with all of the pageantry and quaint ceremonial that has attended similar occasions in the British metropolises for several centuries.

The week will be observed in New York city as "Suffrage Week." Each day and evening public meetings in the cause of equal suffrage will be held and the celebration will wind up with a great parade on Saturday. It is expected that more men and women converts to the cause will be in line than ever marched before in the interests of woman's suffrage.

Several large conventions are scheduled for the week. Those of most importance will be the National Farm Congress in New Orleans, the annual meeting of the American Prison association in Baltimore, and the annual conference of the Association of American Universities in Philadelphia.

SHERMAN HEARD IN CLOSING SPEECH

SENATORIAL CANDIDATE ADDRESSED GREAT SPRINGFIELD AUDIENCE.

Emphasized Fact His Choice Depends Upon Election of Republican Legislature—Pointed to Efficiency in the Administration of Illinois Affairs During Past Eight Years.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 2.—Hon. Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican nominee for United States senator, closed the campaign in Sangamon county tonight, when he spoke to an audience that overflowed Arion hall. It was the largest meeting of the campaign at the capital. Judge Sherman's speech at his home town, devoted largely to a discussion of the tariff, was a masterpiece. Several times his brilliant and forceful climaxes aroused the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

Judge Sherman called attention to the fact that his name does not appear upon the ballot and that he can only be elected United States senator by a Republican legislature. Those who want him elected he asked to work and vote for the Republican legislative candidates, saying that they will vote for him when the legislature meets next January.

In conclusion Judge Sherman warned his friends and neighbors of the dangers which threaten to elect a Democratic legislature. With two United States senators to be chosen and the state to be reapportioned into senatorial and congressional districts he urged that the Republican legislative candidates be not overlooked in the battle at the polls on Tuesday.

In part Judge Sherman spoke as follows, with reference to the present administration of Illinois:

Eight Years of Efficiency. "The state administration is now in the hands of critics. Judge Dunne has made Governor Altgeld's administration his standard of comparison, presumably with what he expects to do in the event of his election. I am content that the voters of this state accept this basis of comparison. Governor Altgeld was a lamentable weak executive. He surrounded himself with either incapable or unfit instruments in the form of his appointees. Not another such a riot of misrule, criminality and extravagance has afflicted the state since it was admitted into the union. The administration of Governor Deneen during the last eight years has been on the highest level in point of efficiency, progress and capable performance of official duty. The history of the state. More progressive measures have been enacted during his administration than that of any other governor. If it be said that $15,000,000 a year is now expended, we reply that the taxpayer gets value received for every cent of it. It has been repeatedly asked of Judge Dunne what items in the $15,000,000 he will veto if he is elected governor. What expenditures will he reduce? No response has been received, nor will it be received in time to be of value to the voter November 5.

At the Soldiers' Home. "Complaint is made by the Democrats that the soldiers in the Quincy home are oppressed. It is said they call the home 'Andersonville.' No one applies this term save those who require reasonable restraint. Unfortunately, some of the inmates are addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquor. It destroys their health, exposes them to injury and impairs the discipline of the home. The state acts through its constituted authorities as a guardian for those unfortunate. In the execution of those guardianship, reasonable and just restraints have been placed upon such portion of the members of the home. From them, the critics of Governor Deneen received their inspiration. The board of administration is responsible for whatever restraints have been put on the men possessed of the habits named. They are reasonable and necessary and I avow for myself and fellow-members of the board Democratic and Republican full responsibility for such restraint.

Republican Legislature Important. "The Republican candidates, if elected, will continue the present high level of public performance now prevailing in the state and national affairs. The election of the entire Republican ticket will guarantee such continuance.

Do Republicans appreciate the importance of electing a Republican legislature which will elect two United States senators and redistrict the state senatorially and congressionally. Once passed, apportionment laws cannot be changed for ten years. A Republican legislature also is necessary for the support of the party platform promises which are to be enacted into laws. My name does not appear upon the ballot. My friends, who wish to aid me can only do so by working and voting for Republican candidates to the legislature. They will vote for me next January."

ALL CANDIDATES ARE CONFIDENT

STATEMENT OF LEADERS SHOWS CONFIDENCE IN ALL POLITICAL CAMPS.

Situation at a Glance in Each State in the Union—Conditions in Remarkable Campaign About to Close.

New York, Nov. 2.—The general election of 1912 has been turned over to the voters of the United States in the language of leaders of the three principal parties. Accession of activity in the respective camps tonight, a recuperating of strength for the final onslaught Monday an effort Tuesday by each faction to "get out its vote," mark the termination of a campaign conceded to have had but few parallels in the history of the nation.

Throughout the country polling places will open Tuesday with the attention on the entire nation focused upon them. There are but few states outside the "solid south" where results are conceded to be one way or another. Confident claims by Democratic leaders of a sweeping victory are met by emphatic assertions from the Republican and Progressive managers that they expect success respectively for their presidential candidates. The presidency and vice-presidency, the House of representatives, the United States senate and the state and local governments of many of the most populous states hang in the balance of Tuesday's elections. In New York the Progressive-Republican-Democratic fight for the state ticket has been so keen as to render the outcome uncertain until the votes are counted. In many other states the introduction of Progressive tickets has broken up what had been a normal Republican majority and has made the control of state officers an open question.

Within the last few complete polls of county and state leaders have been made from New York by the chairmen of three national campaign committees. Upon the predictions of success that have come from the various states, each of the party leaders claims, at the conclusion of the last week of the campaign, that his candidate for the presidency has the assurance of success.

Wm. F. McCombs, Democratic chairman asserted today that Governor Wilson will carry the nation by an "astounding majority."

Charles D. Hilles, Republican chairman declared that President Taft was "assured of a majority in the electoral college."

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Progressive chairman, declared that "all indications point to a Roosevelt landslide."

The presidential candidates rested tonight with their active participation in the campaign over.

Governor Wilson will vote at Princeton and receive the returns Tuesday night at his home there. President Taft will vote in Cincinnati and remain there at the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft until the results are known Wednesday morning. Colonel Roosevelt at Oyster Bay will vote early and devote the day in rest.

Each of the candidates will have a special telegraph wire for the receipt of the election returns.

Campaign Practically Over. New York, Nov. 2.—Activities that have reached into all corners of the nation came to a head here today, at the national headquarters of the three leading political parties. So far as the chairmen of Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties are concerned, the campaign ended tonight. There remain to be carried out tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday, the detailed plans for "getting out the vote," polling contested election districts, and preventing frauds.

At Democratic headquarters the claim of complete victory in the general elections was made without qualification. National Chairman William McCombs declared that Governor Wilson not only would carry a great majority of the states, but his success in strong Republican states would be surprising. Here briefly stated are the views of the respective political leaders, upon the outcome of Tuesday's battle of ballots.

William F. McCombs. "On the eve of an election which closes what has been in many ways the most remarkable campaign in a score of years, I am confident of a sweeping victory for the Democratic ticket. I do not concede a single state in the union to the other parties. We will carry the strongest Republican states. We will win and win by the most impressive figures in the history of our party."

Charles D. Hilles. "The most remarkable campaign within the memory of present generation has drawn to a close and we now await the verdict of the American people. I am confident that that verdict will carry with it a vote of confidence in the courageous, unswerving and patriotic leadership of William Howard Taft and that it will continue the present splendid administration of achievement under which the American people have made such marked progress and enjoyed so abundant a prosperity."

"Nothing short of a political revolution, of which there are no indications, could place the election of Mr. Taft in jeopardy. In my opinion he will receive enough votes in the dependable Republican states to assure him a sufficient number in the electoral college and enough in doubtful states to swell the total into a decisive victory."

Senator Joseph M. Dixon. Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Progressive national chairman:

"The nation will be astounded at the enormous vote for Roosevelt and Johnson next Tuesday. The election returns of four years ago count for nothing in the present contest. All indications point to a Roosevelt landslide."

"No one longer questions that either Colonel Roosevelt or Mr. Wilson will be elected president. Taft will certainly be a bad third in the race with Debs pushing him closely for third place in Connecticut, Illinois and Indiana."

"The last ten days have seen a tremendous drift towards Roosevelt in every part of the country. Facing political revolution as we do there can be no certain yardstick of measurement as in former years. Based on most comprehensive reports from every state chairman of the Progressive party, it now seems certain that Roosevelt will carry twenty-five states, having a total of 297 electoral votes. Wilson will carry twelve states, having 130 electoral votes. Ten states having a total of 104 electoral votes, I believe to be doubtful."

Western Headquarters. Chicago, Nov. 2.—Managers of Republican, Democratic and Progressive western headquarters today concluded their campaign work with unqualified assertions that their tickets would win at the polls on Tuesday.

The Republican managers asserted that President Taft would get 315 electoral votes; the Democrats declared that Wilson would get as many votes as Taft and Roosevelt combined in twenty-six states, and the Progressives claimed 24 states for Roosevelt as a certainty with probabilities of winning three or four more.

David W. Mulvane, manager of Taft headquarters in Chicago, said:

"Mr. Taft will be re-elected president, receiving 315 electoral votes. This will be despite the fact that the Republican party has been bitterly assailed in revengeful fashion by a man who previously received its highest honor."

Joseph E. Davies, director of the Democratic campaign in the west, declared:

"The Democrats will win this election even if we don't get the support of a single northern state east of the Alleghenies. It would not surprise me at all if we get the electoral vote of every state in the union."

Medill McCormick of the Progressive campaign committee announced that the third party was assured of a plurality in twenty-four states.

"The Roosevelt landslide is on," said Mr. McCormick, "and nothing can stop it. In addition to Illinois, New York and California, we will most surely get twenty-one additional states."

In Illinois. Chicago, Nov. 2.—Final reports from all the 102 counties in Illinois indicate that the national election will be affected to large degree by the fight to control the next Illinois general assembly which is to select two United States senators. This situation has made more complex the struggle between Democrats, Republicans and Progressives for victory at the state.

Without precedent for the three party contest and appreciating the effect of the federal senatorial situation, men long experienced in Illinois politics today said that anything might happen at the polls on Tuesday.

Betting odds favor Governor Woodrow Wilson on the national ticket and Governor Charles S. Deneen, Republican, on the state ticket.

This, however, is offset to a considerable extent by reports favoring Colonel Roosevelt and the Progressive ticket. Also, an eleven hour tide for President Taft gave courage to the Republican managers.

The senatorial situation was emphasized in forecasts issued by the various party managers today.

Roy O. West, Republican state chairman, said tonight: "The Republicans will control the forty-eight general assembly and elect two United States senators."

Chauncey Dewey, Progressive state chairman, declared that Colonel Roosevelt would have a plurality in Illinois of 150,000. He also predicted the success of the Progressive ticket.

Joseph E. Davies, director of the Democratic campaign in the west, declared that the Illinois Democrats would give Wilson the 450,000 votes cast for Bryan four years ago in addition 40,000 to 50,000 Republican and Democratic votes not cast for Bryan.

"Of the 629,000 votes cast for President Taft in 1908," said Mr. Davies, "Colonel Roosevelt will get approximately 370,000. President Taft will not get more than 240,000 votes."

The Chicago situation is too uncertain to warrant predictions even by the party managers who say that next year's legislative fight will affect the national election in Chicago to greater degree than it will in the down-state counties.

In Iowa. Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 2.—The presidential, state and congressional campaigns in Iowa closed tonight, with prospects of a heavy vote next Tuesday in the cities and towns and a small vote in the rural districts. The large corn crop yet unharvested is expected to keep the farmers at home. Chairman N. F. Reid of the Democratic state committee tonight declared that about 475,000 votes would be cast in the state. He claimed 210,000 for Wilson and conceded Roosevelt 140,000 and Taft 125,000.

Chairman C. F. Frank of the Progressive state committee declared that the race between Wilson and Roosevelt in Iowa would be close. He declined to give figures.

Chairman Charles A. Rawson, of the Republican state committee, would make no statement.

Vermont. MT. PELIER, Vt., Nov. 2.—Since the state election, Vermont has seen comparatively little campaigning. Progressives and Republicans have had rallies in some cities, but the Democrats have taken practically no steps to arouse the voters. State issues were settled in September, after Colonel Roosevelt and other speakers of national prominence had taken part in a lively campaign. The Republicans secured a plurality over the Democrats and Progressives for the state ticket, but lack of a majority sent the choice to the legislature, where the Republican candidates were successful.

Rhode Island. Providence, R. I., Nov. 2.—Nightly rallies have been addressed by speakers from within and without the state and extensive campaigns have been conducted in preparation for Tuesday's election. Complete state tickets have been put in the field by Republicans, Democrats and Progressives. On the part of the Progressives the final word here is expected to be said by Governor Johnson of California on Monday.

Connecticut. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 2.—The closing of the campaign in Connecticut finds both the Republicans and Democrats confident of winning and the Progressives hopeful of polling 75,000 votes. Democratic Chairman Foster predicts that Wilson will sweep the state by at least 25,000. He also predicts Governor Baldwin's re-election.

Chairman Roraback of the Republicans says the total vote in Connecticut will be close to 200,000, with Taft and the state ticket winning by a plurality of between 10,000 and 15,000. Chairman Alsop of the Progressives, figures the vote for Colonel Roosevelt at 75,000 and upwards.

Ohio. Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Ohio leaders of each of the three larger political parties at the close of the campaign tonight were ready with claims of victory.

The Republicans and Progressives brought their speaking campaigns to an end tonight, while the Democrats will maintain their activity right up to the dawn of election day, ending with a rally in Toledo on Monday night.

The campaign, from an oratorical standpoint has been waged continuously for the last nine months. With the closing days of last December, Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, entered the president's home state and on January 1, campaigning became general when the Ohio Progressives in a mass meeting at Columbus, declined to endorse the Wisconsin senator as their candidate for the presidency.

Since then President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, Governor Wilson, William Jennings Bryan, Governor Harmon and a score of lesser dignitaries, United States senators, cabinet members and congressmen have kept almost a continuous trail of special trains, criss-crossing the state.

California. San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 2.—California closed today the last week of what perhaps has been the most remarkable political campaign the state has ever known. Estimates of the coming result at the polls were contradictory and the most demonstrated observers agreed that the situation was puzzling.

Progressives supporting Roosevelt held to their original declaration that the state was overwhelmingly on their side. Wilson men said they had steadily gained strength since the Sacramento convention and the decision of the supreme court excluding Taft electors from the ballot. Governor Johnson's managers have assured him that his cause in his home state was safe. These things make the campaign difficult to forecast.

That women voted for the first time in a national election has added a puzzling feature.

Idaho. Boise, Idaho, Nov. 2.—The Idaho campaign closed quietly. There is a general apathy among the voters and the silent vote predominates. The Republicans claim the state by 7,500, the Democrats for Wilson by 6,000 and the Progressives for Roosevelt by 10,000. The legislature to be chosen will elect two United States senators.

Utah. Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 2.—The political campaign in Utah practically was closed last night. All the campaign managers agree that 20 per cent of the vote in Utah is doubtful, and the situation is more complicated than ever before.

The Progressives have a complete state ticket in the field, and claim they have been gaining in strength at the expense of the Republicans while the Democrats claim their supporters have been standing firm and will be able to elect at least a portion of their ticket on account of the division in the Republican ranks.

Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 2.—The political campaign in Pennsylvania closed tonight with rallies in many counties of the state. The Republican, Democratic and Washington party leaders each claim their candidates will carry the state. In 1908, Taft received 745,779 votes in the state and Bryan 448,782. The Progressive party candidates in Pennsylvania will be voted for principally under the name of Washington party.

Besides the national ticket great efforts have been made by all parties to elect their state ticket.

Missouri. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—The 1912 election campaign came to a close in Missouri tonight with speakers of all parties making their last appeals for votes.

Democratic leaders were most insistent in the predictions of victory. The Democrats based their predictions largely on the fact that the Republican party which for four years controlled the majority of the state offices, was split by the advent of the Progressive party.

The Democrats expect to exceed their present representation in congress which is 13 out of 16 congressmen.

Kansas. Topeka, Kan., Nov. 2.—Politicians of all three parties three days before election, expressed confidence in its outcome. The Democrats are especially hopeful for both the national and state tickets, because of the factional fight waged in Kansas between Republicans and Progressives over Roosevelt and Taft electors. For governor the race seems close between Arthur Capper, a Republican with avowed Progressive leanings and George H. Hodges, Democrat.

The senatorial race between Governor W. B. Stubbs, Republican Progressive and W. H. Thompson, Democrat will not be decided until the legislature meets.

Wisconsin. Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 2.—Judge J. C. Karel, Democrat and Governor McGovern, Republican for governor, have both made an active campaign and are confident of victory.

Of the congressional nominees, the Republican managers claim the re-election of the present members and express confidence in the election of several nominees now in the field.

Democratic managers expect to return two sitting members without doubt.

Social Democrats do not lay claim to more than two congressmen.

The Progressive party is not seeking congressional honors.

North Dakota. Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 2.—North Dakota is normally Republican in presidential elections by 35,000. A strong Progressive sentiment has prevailed in the Progressive campaign which was vigorously contested by the Progressive, Republican and Democratic parties and each is claiming victory.

Maryland. Baltimore, Nov. 2.—The presidential campaign now nearing its end was one of the quietest in the political annals of Maryland. The Progressives displayed the most activity and enthusiasm throughout. The registration in Baltimore dropped 6,000 below the last previous registration.

Nebraska. Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—The active campaign in Nebraska will not close until Monday evening, when William L. Bryan makes his last address that evening in his home city. Activity of other party leaders was practically ended tonight. Monday will be devoted by all partisans to reaching stragglers.

Minnesota. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 2.—After a vigorous presidential campaign in Minnesota the election is approaching with the leaders of the three principal parties claiming success. Minnesota is normally Republican the state giving Roosevelt a plurality of 161,464 in 1904 and William Taft, 88,442 in 1908.

The most active campaigns have been carried on by the Progressives and Democrats, although the fact that the Republican organization stood by the administration has a decided advantage to the Taft people.

West Virginia. Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 2.—With Wm. R. Thompson, the Democratic nominee for governor, closing his campaign tonight in his home city, Huntington and Dr. H. D. Hatfield, the Republican Progressive candidate, making a final appeal in his county of McDowell, the pre-election struggle in West Virginia is practically ended.

As to the presidency, with Taft and Roosevelt electoral tickets nominated, the Democrats hope to carry the state by substantial plurality. The tight state wide prohibition has in a measure overshadowed the other issues of the campaign.

Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 2.—The Massachusetts campaign closed tonight with Republican, Democratic and Progressive managers claiming success for the state and national tickets.

Governor Eugene Foss seeks re-election on the Democratic ticket; Charles S. Byrd is the nominee of the Progressive and John S. Water is fighting to bring the state back into Republican ranks after two years of Democracy. The next legislature will fill the place of U. S. Senator Crane, who has declined to serve again.

Status of the Political Situation

The Democrats have two announced candidates for the senatorship, Mayor John F. Fitzgerald and Former Congressman Joseph F. Connell. Congressman Samuel W. McCall and Former Governor Eben S. Draper are Republican candidates.

Maine.

Portland, Maine, Nov. 2.—A campaign unlike any Maine has ever known will be concluded Monday. For the first time since the days of the Green Back party, the Democrats are opposed by a divided Republican party in the contest for the state's six presidential electors. The Republicans and Progressives worked together during the state campaign in September and won. The party came after that election and the two divisions of the Republicans have fought each other more actively than either has attacked the Democrats.

Republican pluralities in Maine presidential elections during the last thirty years have varied from 8,000 in 1880 to 45,000 in 1896, with an average of about 25,000. Four years ago President Taft was given a plurality of 31,584.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 2.—With many political meetings throughout the state the Democrats, Republican and Progressive parties brought active campaign work in Kentucky to a close today. Each of the three state chairmen is claiming success for his party.

The election in Kentucky will be confined practically to balloting on the presidential electors and representatives in congress.

The Democratic state chairman claims the state for Wilson by a majority not less than 40,000. The Republicans admit losses since the last presidential election a Democratic governor having replaced a Republican in the meantime but express the belief that these losses will be more than overcome, and a majority given President Taft. Progressive workers have brought reports that both old parties will be surprised election night by the returns in favor of the Progressives.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—With parades, red fire and an unusual flow of oratory, the campaign in Indiana closed with big demonstrations here tonight. The three parties held meetings and the candidate for governor of each was the headliner at his meeting.

Governor Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for vice president, spoke with Samuel M. Ralston, candidate for governor, at the Democratic meeting. W. T. Durbin, who is making the race for governor on the Republican ticket was followed by W. E. English at the Republican gathering while Albert J. Beveridge, candidate for governor, and Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota were the principal speakers at the Progressive rally. Each of the three chairmen of the three parties has issued a statement contending that the state will support his candidate in the election next Tuesday. The chairmen gave it as their belief that the events of the last few weeks have tended to strengthen their respective parties. With the conditions altered from any previous election, party leaders have refrained from fixing the figures by which they claim they will carry the state. Indiana normally is Republican by about 12,000, but with the third party in the field, political wiseacres admit they cannot with any certainty estimate the vote this year.

Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 2.—The close of the Michigan campaign finds each of the three leading parties, the Democratic, Republican and Progressive, claiming victory. The Socialists, while not claiming majorities, predict the biggest Michigan vote ever polled by their party. The progressive national ticket is the favorite in the betting.

The campaign has waged furiously ever since the first state convention last spring—that of the Republicans when state troops were called out to prevent rioting and possible bloodshed. Amos Musselman is the Republican candidate for governor, L. W. Watkins is the gubernatorial candidate of the Progressives and Woodbridge N. Ferris, head of the Ferris Institute at Big Rapids, is the Democratic candidate for the state's chief executive. The Democrats claim that the division in the Republican ranks assures victory for their candidates.

Most vigorous of all Michigan municipal campaigns has been fought in Detroit. Mayor William B. Thompson, Democrat, is a candidate for re-election against Oscar B. Marx, Republican, and H. S. Earle, Progressive. The question of municipal ownership of the local street car system has been a factor in the local campaign.

District of Columbia.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—The close of the campaign finds Washington practically deserted by all high government officials.

President Taft, after voting in Cincinnati, will not return to the capital until next Thursday. Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft probably will bear the returns at the summer white house at Beverly. Robert, the eldest son, at Harvard, and Charles, the younger, at Horace Taft's school, probably will not join her. Secretary Fisher of the interior department, will be the only cabinet officer in Washington on election day and "sitting on the lid" he will be acting president. The secretary's long trip to Hawaii prevented his registration in his home ward in Chicago, so he cannot vote. Neither can Secretary Nagel, who, campaigning for several weeks for President Taft, lost his chance to register.

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture will vote at his home at Tracer, Iowa. He has been campaigning in the middle west. Secretary Knox will return from his western trip in time to vote in Pittsburgh and the assistant secretary of state, Huntington Wilson, will vote in Chicago. Secretary Strimson will vote in New York as will Attorney General Wickersham. Secretary Meyer votes at Hamilton, Mass., and Assistant Secretary Winthrop at Jericho, L. I., in the Oyster Bay district.

Carmel Thompson, President Taft's secretary, after his speaking tour in Ohio, will cast his ballot at his home, Ironton, and Lewis L. Laylin, assistant secretary of the interior at Columbus. Assistant Secretary Allen of the treasury department has gone to Vermont to vote and assistant Secretary Curtis will vote in Boston.

That part of official Washington, which does not vote, remains in the attitude of an interested spectator. Government departments are always partially depleted on election day. This year it is estimated upwards of 3,000 clerks have been granted leaves of absence to go home to vote.

Virtually every member of congress is out of Washington. Most of them have been in their home districts looking after their fences during the campaign. There is no national headquarters of any party in Washington, and with practically all officials out of the city, old observers predict the coming election day will be quiet.

Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—A warm three-cornered campaign for the governorship has occupied the center of the stage in Tennessee during the present campaign.

The Progressives declare that a Democratic factional contest will favor the Roosevelt national ticket, but the Democratic leaders assert that the usual Democratic majority for the presidential candidate will be returned next Tuesday. A state primary also will be held. Former Governor Patterson, Democrat, is without opposition as candidate for United States senator. In the race for governorship, Governor Hooper is opposed by former Governor McMillan, Democrat, and Colonel Poston, Progressive.

Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 2.—Democratic leaders estimate that Oklahoma, nominally Democratic, will elect Wilson-Marshall electors by a majority of 15,000 and the state ticket by practically the same figures. The Republican situation is admittedly complicated. Progressive party electors were denied a place on the ticket through contest and recently several of those nominated as Republican electors have been quoted as asserting that they would vote for Roosevelt. For congress the re-election of Representatives Scott Ferris and Charles D. Carter, Democrats, is conceded. In other three districts, there are spirited contests. No Progressive party candidates are named for state or congressional offices. The campaign has been the most spirited since Oklahoma was admitted to statehood.

Colorado.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 2.—Colorado is just closing one of the most hotly contested political campaigns in its history. Three parties, Democratic, Republican and Progressive are contending for victory in the choice of presidential electors, four representatives in congress and complete state and legislative tickets. For the first time the voters will express their preference for United States senators, of whom two are to be elected by the legislature this winter.

Thirty-two initiative and referendum bills and constitutional amendments are on the ballot.

Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 2.—With three parties claiming the state the campaign in Wyoming was one of the warmest ever held in this state. The Republicans claim the state for Taft by 30,000.

S. G. Hopkins, chairman of the state Democratic committee, claims victory for Wilson by 20,000.

The Progressives declare Roosevelt will carry the state by a small majority.

The main fight of the campaign has been on the re-election of Senator Francis E. Warren, Republican. He is opposed by John B. Kennedy, Democrat of Sheridan.

The Democrats and progressives combined against Warren.

New Mexico.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 2.—With the closing tonight of the first presidential campaign in New Mexico, a poll of the state indicates a comparatively light vote next Tuesday. There are three tickets in the field for presidential electors and one member of congress. The chairman of the Democratic, Republican and Progressive committees each claims victory for his ticket by a large majority. An amendment to the constitution repealing the so-called language clause providing that all who hold state office shall speak, read and write English, will be voted upon.

Arizona.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Democrats claim pluralities ranging from 5,000 to 2,000. Progressives assert Roosevelt will have a plurality. The re-election Congressman Carl Hayden, Democrat, is conceded.

The constitutional amendments providing the recall of judges and giving the state the right to engage in industrial purposes are expected to carry. The vote on woman suffrage will be close.

Utah.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 2.—The political campaign in Utah practically was closed tonight. All the campaign managers agree that 20 per cent of the vote in Utah is doubtful and the situation is more complicated than in any previous year.

The Progressives have a complete state ticket in the field and claim they have been gaining in strength at the expense of the Republicans, while the Democratic managers claim their supporters have been standing firm and will be able to elect at least a portion of their ticket on account of the division in the Republican ranks.

Washington.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 2.—The feature of the Washington campaign close has been the savage attack made by the Republicans on the personal character of Robert Hodge, Progressive candidate for governor. This attack the Democrats say has greatly benefited Ernest Lister, their candidate for governor. The Republicans are making a hard fight to re-elect Governor Marion E. Hay and to elect congressmen in the first and second districts and two congressmen at large. The Democrats hope to elect in the first district. Progressives count on the popularity of Roosevelt to carry the state and elect three Progressive congressmen.

Oregon.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 2.—The presidential fight is admittedly close in this state. The contest for United States senator and so-called single tax initiative are attracting particular attention. At this election, also the question of equal suffrage will be voted on in addition to 21 other constitutional amendments, initiative and referendum measure. There are 177 candidates for 43 offices.

Nevada.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 2.—A strenuous campaign is practically closed tonight in Nevada. It was complicated by the contest for the choice on popular vote for United States senator.

Senator W. A. Massey, appointed by the governor for the interim from the death of the late Senator Nixon until the legislature meets, now seeks election as the Republican nominee for the remainder of the term expiring in 1917. He is opposed by Key Pittman, Democrat, and Garges Summerfield, Progressive.

South Dakota.

Sioax Falls, S. D., Nov. 2.—The South Dakota situation is puzzling. According to claims of the rural managers it is anybody's state on president. The Roosevelt men who are in control of the machinery of the Republican party, and who have five Roosevelt men placed on the regular Republican ballot as electors profess confidence that the Roosevelt supporters of President Taft and the LaFollette men of the state, who have no electors in the field, are equally confident that the Roosevelt electors will be defeated and that Wilson will capture the five electors. The Roosevelt men claim their electors will sweep the state by a majority of 10,000 or upward, while Taft and LaFollette managers say the chances appear just as good for the Wilson electors to carry the state by anywhere from 5,000 to 10,000 over Roosevelt. In 1908 Bryan received 40,266 and Taft 67,536 votes.

Montana.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 2.—Managers of the three leading candidates claim victory at the close of the campaign tonight. Chief interest in the Montana campaign aside from president, centers in the governorship. The supporters of each of the three candidates claim victory. The vote on governor, political leaders admit, will be close. Less interest is being taken in the preferential vote for United States senator. Probably this vote will adhere closely to national party lines.

MOST REMARKABLE CAMPAIGN CLOSES

Election Tuesday Will Only Secure an Official Record of Decisions Already Made.

New York, Nov. 2.—With the close of the last week before election the last week of one of the most remarkable political campaigns the country has ever known little is left to be done but to indulge in forecasts and wait for the returns. As shouting is all over but the shouting, nobody knows as yet who will do the shouting, but the minds of the people are made up, the campaign is at an end, and the election of Tuesday will only be to secure an official record of a decision already made.

Five national conventions have nominated candidates for president and vice-president of the United States. William Howard Taft of Ohio and James S. Sherman of New York were renominated for president and vice-president, respectively, by the Republicans at Chicago. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana were named by the Democratic convention at Baltimore. The new Progressive party, in convention at Chicago, nominated Theodore Roosevelt of New York for president and Hiram W. Johnson of California for vice-president. The Prohibitionists at their convention at Atlantic City put up Eugene W. Chafin of Illinois for president and Aaron S. Watkins of Ohio for vice-president. The Socialist party at Indianapolis brought out the names of Eugene V. Debs of Indiana for president and Emil Seidel of Wisconsin for vice president.

This year of 1912 has seen such a sundoring of political ties as does not often occur in America, but it is all referable to so-called "progressivism," just as slavery was responsible for the diverse tickets in 1860 and the monetary question for the splitup of the Democratic party in 1906.

The Democrats this year present a more united front than for many years past. Though the campaign that preceded the Baltimore convention was an exceedingly spirited one, it apparently left no bitterness, for the restoration of harmony was almost instantaneous. Within a week after the delegates adjourned at Baltimore the several factions came together with the single purpose of electing the national ticket. The unsuccessful opponents of Wilson at Baltimore took to the stump in his behalf and the Bryanites and anti-Bryanites of the olden days have repeatedly spoken from the same platform during the campaign that has just closed.

The Republican party, on the other hand, has found itself divided for the first time since the civil war. The "insurgents" who boiled the Republican national convention at Chicago after the renomination of President Taft met in the same city a few weeks later and formed the Progressive party. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who had fought vainly to secure the "regular" Republican nomination, was named for president and Governor Johnson of California was selected as his running mate.

The situation on the Republican side then became complicated by the fact that the political affiliations of the electors in many of the states were in doubt, being claimed by both the Taft and Roosevelt factions. The electoral controversies were finally settled in a manner more or less satisfactory to both sides, though new and more serious perplexities may result from the same source in case the balloting is close next Tuesday.

A court decision has left Taft without representation on the electoral ticket in California, where the Roosevelt electors appear as the Republican ticket have agreed to vote for Taft if he carries the state. A similar agreement has been reached in Oregon. In South Dakota and Nebraska the Taft electors appear on the ballot by petition. In the other states where controversies existed the original Roosevelt electors have been replaced on the Republican ballot by Taft supporters.

The next electoral college will be composed of 531 members, and the successful candidates for president and vice president must secure a total of at least 265 to be elected. With three leading tickets in the field, instead of two as in former presidential campaigns of late years, it is easily within the range of possibilities that none of the three might secure a sufficient electoral vote and that the election of the next president and vice president would devolve upon the national house of representatives.

Besides the presidential succession there will also be decided on Tuesday the question of the control of the house of representatives. There will be 425 representatives in the next congress, all of whom will be elected on Tuesday except the few in Maine and Vermont, which states hold early elections.

The terms of one-third of the members of the United States senate expire next March. In a few states their seats have already been filled, but in many others the complexion of the legislatures elected on Tuesday will decide.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

The Alumni catalogue which was issued last Tuesday is being received with great interest and favor by the alumni and former students of the college. The gathering of the statistics and the printing of the book have cost the Alumni association and the college a considerable amount. To cover a part of the expense the catalogues are being sold at $1 per copy. They may be obtained either at the president's office or at Ransdell's book store.

The annual leaf raking occurred on the campus last Wednesday. A picnic supper was served around the fire on the athletic field at the end of the day. The affair was greatly enjoyed by both faculty and students.

The young ladies of Academy hall gave a Halloween party Thursday evening. Dr. W. S. Plummer Bryan, pastor of the Church of the Covenant of Chicago, has been invited to deliver an address to the students of Illinois college on the Reverend George L. Roberts Foundation on Tuesday morning, Nov. 12.

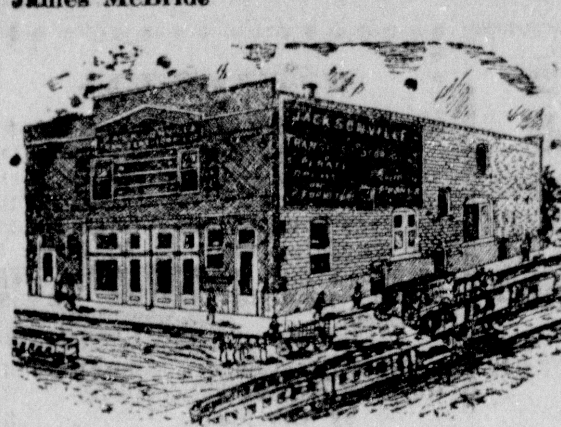

J. C. Schroeder of St. Louis, representing the order of Railroad Telegraphers, was in the city Saturday in the interest of the order.

Mrs. Hardy Kinnett and daughters of Mercedosa are in the city visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. N. C. Stringam on Chestnut street. Miss Margaret Ryman has returned from a visit with Mrs. H. E. Rose at her home in Ripley.

Mrs. John Alexander of Chapin was shopping in the city yesterday. Miss Idella Wilson of Chandler, ville was calling on friends in the city yesterday.

Mrs. H. C. Castlin of Beardstown was a Saturday shopper in the city. Mrs. James Nash was among the Saturday visitors in the city from Chapin.

The Fuel Supply Needs Attention Only Three Times Each Day

The makers of Cole's Hot Blast Heater guarantee this stove to hold fire with soft coal 36 hours without attention. Your old stove and imitation stoves leak air and waste fuel because they are not air-tight, because they have putty joints.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

—by means of the patented Hot Blast Draft and other patented features which make it tight, doing away with the use of stove putty—requires less attention than any other heater made.

All fuel—Soft Coal, Hard Coal, Lignite, Wood or Corn Cobs—contains a large amount of gas. Fully one-half of the heating power (carbon) in soft coal is gas. This is the part of the fuel this wonderful heater saves, by burning it with the Top Hot Blast Draft. This makes Cole's Hot Blast Heater the most satisfactory, the most economical, the most convenient heater you can buy. Imitations and other styles of stoves allow this gas-half of the coal to pass up the chimney with the smoke, unburned.

Thousands of these stoves are in use and the sale continues to increase year after year.

This heater will give you more comfort than you ever thought possible by using any kind of a stove which uses soft coal for fuel.

BEDE DEFENDS PRESIDENT'S RECORD

MINNESOTA REPRESENTATIVE PRAISES ADMINISTRATION.

Some Administration Achievements. Says Taft Policies Have Brought Prosperity and That Laws Have Been Enforced—Nomination Was Not Stolen.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 2.—A defense of President Taft against charges made by political opponents and an eulogistic review of the three and a half years he had been at the head of the nation, was delivered here tonight by former Representative, Adam Bede, of Minnesota. The speaker condemned the creation of the National Progressive party. The speech follows:

Government By Parties. "First of all, ours is a government by parties, and therefore in order that a majority may always rule and be held responsible, it should be a government by two parties—one in power and one almost in, one running the government and the other vigilantly watching the program and performance of its successful rival.

"Parties are not made in a day, but to be of highest service to the people, must have a history and tradition, great names and past achievement. The Republican and Democratic parties, and they alone, enjoy such distinction in the political annals of the United States. Through them has been accomplished all our progress in government, while sideline innovations have from time to time appeared and disappeared on the political horizon. The Bull Moose third term movement of the present campaign is only another instance of a transient organization based on ambition and revenge, the only possible effect of which can be to throw the government into the control of a minority of the people. And for what good?

"Every American who believes in the Republican policy of protection and the unparalleled prosperity of the present time, when there are more jobs than men, with the comforts of life universally distributed, should vote for Taft. He is not a politician—but he has made a great president and is doing the world good. Like Washington and Lincoln, he has a temperance for the place, and under a little different circumstances might today be filling with distinction the office of chief justice of the United States.

"He is a gentleman, a statesman and a diplomat. He does not play politics nor favorites. He enforces the law alike for rich and poor. He is the president of all our people. He is not a bully, a blackguard, nor a demagogue. He never made a panic, broke his word, nor threw a friend. He is normally minded. He does not lie and he has no Ananias club. He defends the constitution, and believes in representative government with orderly progress. He is in the highest sense a true American.

No Theft of Nomination. "Some one shouts that he stole his nomination. Then he must have stolen it from somebody. Can any one name the owner? Surely neither Cummins nor LaFollette owned it, for one had only ten delegates and the other thirty-six. Nor did the bolters own it, for only a small minority bolted, counting contesting delegates and all. No, there was no stealing of a nomination in Chicago. There was an attempted theft, and then the would-be thieves cried, 'Stop thief!' to cover their bolt while they organized the Bull Moose party. Out of two hundred and thirty-eight contests they admitted bluff in all but thirty-four and dropped them. And even these were mostly rejected after careful hearing. He has done his work, but it is only a life. And now while the Bull Moosers stand at Armageddon and battle for the Lord, they are stealing the right of every Republican to vote in South Dakota and California.

In the investigation of campaign contributions, Taft alone stands forth unaimed and unafraid. The trust fund for Roosevelt in 1904 and 1912 is starting, while Thomas F. Ryan's southern hospitality to Candidate Parker makes Ross Bill Flynn look like Mexican money, and even Governor Wilson accepted with personal approval a generous contribution from the owners of the Harvey Trust, after the government had begun a dissolution suit. Anyone who believes in clean politics can be absolutely sure to get what he wants by voting for Taft.

Everywhere, from Boston to San Francisco, the trend of thought is toward the president. Labor is universally employed, money is plentiful, every legitimate enterprise is prospering, every man has a meal ticket and everybody has a milk bottle, the cricket is on the hearth and there is joy in the land. Why make a change?

Stands for Protection. "Taft stands for the principle of protection, with intelligent tariff revision, schedule by schedule, through a tariff board, without stopping a mill or throwing a man out of work. The Democratic congress voted to abolish the tariff board and committed itself to violent revision, while the Democratic platform declares protection to be unconstitutional.

"Free trade would permit, and in some cases would compel, our vast accumulations of manufacturing capital to go abroad, employ foreign labor and sell the products in the American markets. This is a Democratic fallacy, as opposed to the Republican policy that has made us strong and great.

"When the world began discussing serfdom and slavery a century ago, it greatly quickened inventive genius, and the conditions of life have been wholly transformed. Every step has made its problem, and it is for us to say whether we shall meet our problems—incidents of our progress—or repeat this modern civilization and return to the simple but half savage life of our Colonial ancestors.

"And President Taft has been doing all the federal government can legally do to meet these new conditions and bring happiness to the people. His arbitration treaties alone will make his name and administration forever famous. The telegraph and steamship have made the world one country, so that every war is now a civil war and must be stopped.

"He brought us out of the panic into the gladness of prosperity, he gave us the postal savings bank, the parcel post, the mining bureau, the children's bureau, the employers' liability act, the corrupt practices act, the industrial commission, the one per cent gross earnings tax on corporations, the maximum tariff schedules, the tariff board, the income tax amendment, a self supporting postal department, the customs court, the commerce court, has preserved peace under trying circumstances and sustained the dignity of our government at all times at home and abroad.

"This is but an abridged and feeble statement of the facts. For three years and a half the president has been bitterly maligned, but the truth is finding its way to the light, just as the muckraker, the demagogue, the hoodler, the man seeking a special privilege, the fumbler of the faithless friend, and the sacred chorus of the Pie Eaters' Union.

"A year and a half ago, when Mr. Taft had served two years and had two more to serve, the tariff bill being then bitterly criticized, he was urged to do certain things to popularize his administration and assure his re-election. The suggestions did not appeal to him, and striking the table with his fist he exclaimed: 'I would rather be president for two years than a trimmer for six.'

"Such is the man in the White House, and such is the sort of man that ought always to be there."

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

Mrs. Rhea T. Roth, of Hot Springs, S. D., has been visiting at the college for the past week. Mrs. Joseph R. Harker and Miss Winnie Wackerle spent Saturday in St. Louis. Miss Minnie Scott has returned to the college and resumed her work in the office after an extended trip in Oklahoma and other southwestern points.

Mrs. Harry B. Ward, of DuQuoin, is visiting her daughter, Miss Marjorie. Rev. Arthur Ewert was in Carrollton on business for the college. Mrs. Belle S. Lambert spent Tuesday in St. Louis in the interest of the college.

Director and Professor Swarthout were called to Pawnee Wednesday to attend the funeral of their grandmother.

Mrs. Sam Darley has presented the library with two volumes of the North American Review. These gifts are greatly appreciated, and it is hoped other friends of the school will not forget the library.

Mr. Lorado Taft will give his lecture on "American Sculpture and Sculptors," in Music hall Monday evening, Nov. 11.

The Home Economics department have made arrangements with the Journal to publish an article each week in the paper. They have also arranged to edit the Home Economics page in the Northwestern Christian Advocate, beginning the first of January.

The Halloween party on Thursday night was one of the most delightful ever given at the college. All the classes took part in the entertainment. The principal program was given in the old chapel. One of the features of the entertainment was the battle between the witches, in which the stronghold of the witches was captured by the use of an enormous black cat. This cat was taken into the stronghold in the same manner as the wooden horse was taken in Troy.

CONSERVATORY NOTES.

Mr. Munger's annual recital last Tuesday evening, Oct. 29, was well attended. A very appreciative audience applauded with enthusiasm, demanding several encores.

Miss Jensen played violin solos at the free kindergarten on Friday afternoon, Nov. 1, and will play also at the meeting of the Woman's Educational society on Tuesday, Nov. 5. Mabel Forrester played a violin obligato at the Christian church on Sunday evening, Oct. 27.

Miss Mae Ainsworth of Chandlerville came to Jacksonville on Tuesday to attend Mr. Munger's recital. The Halloween party given by the Misses Robinson on Monday afternoon, Oct. 28, was most successful, being attended by over fifty children.

Mr. Munger visited in Jerseyville last Thursday evening, Oct. 31. At the general meeting of the Woman's club of Jacksonville next Saturday afternoon, Nov. 9, Mr. Munger will play some piano solos.

TRAFFIC GOOD.

Trains arriving in the city yesterday were generally well filled with passengers. The early train east on the Wabash was so full that many were unable to obtain seats and were obliged to stand.

NO PATCHES ON MY PANTS.
Oh! yes; I've heard about the trusts. Of how I'm being "done." Of how the wicked tariff too. Is "robbing" every one. But I am working every day. And maybe you, perchance. Have noticed that I haven't got A patch upon my pants. They tell me that I am a "slave" Of "plutocratic" rule; That I should vote for Wilson, and The party of the mule; That he will rip the tariff up And on the pieces dance. But, please observe, I do not wear A patch upon my pants. Once I was led astray; I think It was in 'ninety-two. When Cleveland ran for president; I shouted for him, too; Thought there'd be work for every one And wages would advance. He was elected and I wore Big patches on my pants. I lost my job and couldn't get Another thing to do. I walked the streets and everywhere Souphouses met my view; And there were thousands just like me. All fighting for a chance To earn their bread and every man Wore patches on his pants. I will not vote for Wilson; no. With him I don't agree. As for his party, well, kind sir, Once was enough for me. I've steady work, I have good pay. And you may note, perchance, I'm wearing creases now instead Of patches on my pants.—EX.

BROOKLYN AND ASBURY.
The Asbury revival has been in progress for two weeks, and has been well attended. Several of the leading young married people of the community are identifying themselves with the church, and these are being received into fellowship the coming Sunday afternoon. Baptism is also to be given to all who present themselves, including christening of children. There was no service Friday night on account of the bad conditions.
Rev. H. S. Akire, the pastor, will occupy Brooklyn pulpit at both services today. Sunday night, apropos to the coming election, he has announced a sermon on "The Battle of the Ballots." He thinks the present campaign has been the most spectacular and tragic of any in the nation's history. The full chorus is billed for special music all day Sunday.
Next Thursday night several men of Brooklyn and Asbury are to receive Baptism in the Y. M. C. A. pool. Definite announcement of this service will be made Sunday.
TO CELEBRATE SUPREMACY IN AIR
Paris, Nov. 2.—To celebrate the supremacy of France in aerial navigation a great banquet of over 2,000 covers is to be given tomorrow under the auspices of the French National committee of Military Aviation. The scene of the banquet will be the largest of the great dirigible hangars on the aviation field at Issy les Moulinaux. The gathering will be exceptionally brilliant, the guests including members of the cabinet heads of the army and navy, several scores of French aviators, and many members of political and social organizations who have helped to give to France the eminent position she holds as "Queen of the Air."
ORGANIZED SOCIETIES.
Miss Olive M. Blunt spent Friday in Winchester encouraging the formation of a union missionary society of the four churches. It was an effective conference and resulted in the appointment of two from each church to meet a week later and plan for such an organization. Since the county association and social women have organized a home and foreign to meet in connection with the aid society. The Christian church expects to do the same in the near future. Miss Blunt also organized, during the week, a good aid home and foreign society at the Baptist church of Alsely.

CATARRH IS IN THE BLOOD

A polluted and impure condition of the blood causes irritation and inflammation of the different mucous membranes of the body, and we call it Catarrh. The early stages of the disease are characterized by such symptoms as a tight, stuffy feeling in the nose, watery eyes, ringing noises in the ears, irritation of the throat, and often hoarseness and difficult breathing. If the trouble is not checked it invades the stomach and other portions of the body and becomes a dangerous disorder. Antiseptic washes, sprays, etc., are beneficial in removing accumulated mucus from the nose or throat, but such treatment can never cure Catarrh. S. S. S. is the one real dependable remedy for Catarrh. This great medicine cures the disease because it purifies the blood and thus destroys its cause. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes the last trace of catarrhal matter, and then the blood performs its work of nourishing the membranes and tissues instead of depositing impure matter into them to irritate and inflame. S. S. S. cures to stay cured. If you have Catarrh in any form take S. S. S. and you will cure it as thousands have done. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

CHAMPAIGN HIGH WALLOPS J. H. S.

EASILY WINS FOOTBALL CONTEST BY SCORE OF 60 TO 0.

Reeve, Stewart and Jackson Out of Game in First Quarter on Account of Injuries—Champaign Makes Eight Touchdowns in First Half.

(Special to Journal.)

Champaign, Nov. 2.—Jacksonville high school football team was badly walloped here today by the Champaign high school, the score being 60 to 0.

Champaign walked through Jacksonville's line for eight touchdowns, seven being made in the first half and five in the second. Not being able to tackle and simply laying down accounts for the size of the score. Jacksonville kicked to Champaign, who returned the ball to the center of the field; second play circled end for first touch down. On second play after next kick off, Capt. Stewart was forced to leave the game from then to the end of the quarter Jacksonville seemed to be paralyzed, offering very little resistance.

In the second quarter Jacksonville began to work up and take an interest in the game. Champaign scoring but two touch downs.

In the third quarter Champaign kicked to Jacksonville, who started with a rush and by end runs and trick plays carried the ball to Champaign's 50 yard line, where they lost it in an intercepted forward pass, when Champaign received their last touch down.

The rest of this quarter and in the last quarter, the visitors outplayed Champaign at all points of the game, the ball being almost entirely in Champaign territory, and only fumbling and hard luck prevented the locals from scoring.

If Jacksonville had only shown the same fighting spirit in the first half, Champaign would be in gloom tonight instead of celebrating an overwhelming victory. Champaign has no better team than Springfield.

Jacksonville can lay her defeat to the loss of four of her star men three of them being forced to retire from the game in the first quarter from injuries. Reeve, Stewart and Jackson were the victims of the team's lack of tackle. The officials and the treatment given by Champaign was great.

Purdue 24; Northwestern 6.

Evansville, Ill., Nov. 2.—Playing a brilliant game of straight football, Purdue university triumphed over Northwestern university 24 to 6. Purdue's score was the result of three touch downs. O'Brien, Purdue's fullback, went over for the first in the opening period after Olephant had advanced the ball to Northwestern's 1 yard line. Purdue's second touch down was made in the third period when Phelps raced sixty yards through a broken field and planted the ball between Northwestern goal posts. Olephant went over the line for Purdue's final score in the fourth period after O'Brien had placed the ball on Northwestern two yard line. Olephant kicked all three goals.

Spectacular plays by Hightower, Lamke and Gruhn enabled Northwestern to score four minutes after the beginning of the game. Hightower gained 40 yards on an end run and the ball was advanced 100 yards more on a forward pass, Hightower to Lamke. Gruhn then plunged through the line for a touchdown.

Lamke failed to kick the goal. Olephant, Purdue's crack half back and one of the leading players of the conference did the best individual work of the day. He went through the line repeatedly for long gains and skirted the ends time after time for ten and fifteen yards. He also played a strong defensive game, his tackling stopping Northwestern runners at critical times. For Northwestern, Hightower, Wells, Lamke and Gruhn played the strongest game.

Illinois Wesleyan, 16; Shurtleff, 6. Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 2.—Better execution of the forward pass gave Illinois Wesleyan a well earned victory over Shurtleff college of Upper Alton here today, the Methodists winning by the score of 16 to 6. Howard's brilliant work in the line featured.

St. Louis, 28; Creighton, 3. Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—St. Louis university decisively defeated Creighton university here today by a score of 28 to 3. The locals were unable effectively to stop the plunging backs and speedy end runs of the visitors.

WANT TO KEEP PROSPERITY.

Director Mulvane, in charge of the western bureau of the Republican campaign, has issued a statement claiming 315 electoral votes for President Taft, or 43 more than are necessary to elect. The reports which have come in to headquarters during the past week have been unanimous in their showing that the Republicans are getting back into line, being convinced that Roosevelt's election is an impossibility and realizing that a vote for Wilson is a half a vote for Wilson and free trade.

In addition to this, there is indisputable evidence that Woodrow Wilson will not get the Democratic vote which was given to Bryan in 1908. Thousands of Democrats in every state have declared that they are for President Taft upon the plain business proposition that they do not want a change from the present prosperous conditions. It is reported from all sections that business men and farmers, as well as workmen, who have hitherto been Democrats, are openly working for the success of the Republican ticket in the hope that prosperity will not be destroyed.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE IS STRONG FOR DENEEN

Chief Newspaper Advocate of Progressive Party Points to Weakness of Funk—Urges Re-election of Present Governor and Lauds His Record.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Chicago Tribune Sunday morning, Nov. 2, edition will say "Deneen and Funk." The Tribune is in receipt of many letters arguing that it is the duty of a Progressive newspaper to support Funk for governor.

"The Tribune can only answer that such a course, far from being progressive, would be extremely reactionary."

"The time has long passed when intelligent voters vote for party nominees irrespective of their fitness and that of their opponents, or prefer the label on the man to the man himself."

"The Progressive movement is of a long and steady growth in the Republican party. The completeness with which it had come to dominate the party was shown in the direct primaries of last spring, not only in its expressed preference for the presidential nominee, but in Illinois in the selection of the Republican candidates for state, county, and municipal offices."

Roosevelt was drafted to lead the movement this year, because President Taft had taken the power of his office and of patronage bodily over to the forces of reaction and corruption. Roosevelt was drafted because he and he only had the reputation and power to fight such an overwhelming political machine."

Hard Picked Nominations.

The Progressive party nominations were not made by direct primaries, but by hand picked conventions.

"For the governorship was picked Mr. Frank H. Funk. Mr. Funk is a man of undoubted personal honesty and was one of the state senators who had been working under the leadership of Governor Deneen, to break up the old senate combine. But of all these senators—Hay, Hurlburt, Jones, Magill, Funk, and Iohn—Funk, who held the least progressive views as the word, Progressive is now understood."

"Funk had no interest in direct primaries and was positively opposed to this initiative and referendum."

"His selection was engineered to obtain a country candidate with an ostensible public record and who was rich and conservative. The arguments for his candidacy are both of them bad."

Not Presidential Appendage.

"The voter of any party who votes the ticket from top to bottom is the unconscious support of the boss and the ally of the hoodler."

"To vote for Funk because we vote for Roosevelt, is to reduce the most important office in the state of Illinois to a political appendage of the presidency."

"Funk as governor would be an experiment. As an executive we party and of President Taft.

"This being true, it seems remarkable that any Republican should be led away from the organization with which he has been identified for a life time and to the principles of which he has given cordial support. He has seen the country grow and prosper under Republican administration, just as he saw it pass through a period of great distress under the tariff-for-revenue-only policy of the Democratic party. By now voting for the third term candidate he aids in the election of a Democratic president and makes possible a return to the conditions which made the period between 1892 and 1897 one of national gloom. It is impossible to elect Theodore Roosevelt. To win the presidency he must receive eight out of every ten Republican votes cast in the United States. Everybody knows that he cannot do this."

ANDREW RUSSELL'S CANDIDACY.

In the election Tuesday it will be particularly pleasing to Andrew Russell to get a heavy vote in this, his home county. In seeking the office of state treasurer Mr. Russell is not aspiring to an office which he knows little about. For two years he held the office and managed it in a way which saved Illinois thousands of dollars and at the same time greatly increased the revenue accruing to the state through the office. Thirty-eight years of banking experience have fitted Mr. Russell for the treasurer's office, and he is a man who believes that a public office is a public trust. He will get a heavy vote in Morgan county where he has been known.

P. L. Gregory, Republican candidate for state's attorney is before the people with a clean record. He is a young man of high character and has had twelve years experience in law practice. His training and character are such as to make it sure that if elected he will make a faithful and efficient public servant. Allison Thomason, candidate for commissioner on the Republican ticket is familiar with the needs and business of the county. He is a successful farmer and land owner and is in every way safe and trustworthy. John A. Rawlings as circuit clerk is entitled to re-election on his record for accuracy and efficiency. He has conducted the office for four years on a high plane, due partially to his general grasp of business affairs and partially to his legal training. G. V. Skinner, Republican candidate for coroner is a man of splendid character with a high sense of duty. He has given the office the right attention for two years past and should be returned to office next Tuesday.

TAFT'S SAFE ADMINISTRATION.

The Republican party has been the one progressive party of the nation, from the day that it undertook to overthrow slavery to the present time. It has maintained the credit of the government at home and abroad and its record of beneficent legislation for the betterment of social conditions is long and effective. It has also maintained the policy of protection, in which is wrapped up the wage of the workman and the industrial progress of the nation. In addition to this, President Taft has given the country a safe, honest, wise and economical administration, accomplishing more in three and a half years than his predecessor did in twice that time. In fact, columns could be filled with the achievements of the Republican

WILLIAM GORMAN LOSES RIGHT LEG

Chicago & Alton Brakeman Falls Under Train While Switching in Petersburg Yards.

William Gorman, a brakeman on the Chicago & Alton local freight running between Roodhouse and Tallula, suffered the loss of his right leg when he fell under the train while switching in the yards at Petersburg Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock.

Mr. Gorman runs between Roodhouse and Tallula and as the other local was held over in Petersburg Friday night the other local crew went to that place for the train. They pulled half of the train up a hill into Tallula and when the train arrived at that place the crew received a message that they left a brakeman at Petersburg. Thinking that nothing had happened the men went to work to place their cars when they received another message that Mr. Gorman had fallen under the train and his leg had been cut off. They immediately backed their train to Petersburg and took care of Mr. Gorman, who had been lying on the track for an hour. It developed that in climbing down from a coal car he became blinded by the steam, missed his footing and fell under the wheels, with the result that his right leg was cut off about six inches below the thigh. He was brought to Our Savior's hospital in this city. Saturday night at 11:15 o'clock and was attended by Dr. F. A. Norris and Dr. Edward Bowe.

During the past summer Mr. Gorman was in charge of the switching crew in this city and has a large circle of friends here who will hope for a speedy recovery.

PROGRESSIVE STATEMENT.

The report in the Journal, emanating from the chairman of the Republican state committee, Roy O. West, bosom friend of C. S. Denen, is untrue. Mr. West in order to stay a landslide for Funk, issues a roachback, the meaning of which is, as Webster gives it, "a lie, a fictitious report, made for the purpose of influencing an election." Nobody knows better than Roy West that the Bull Moose vote is lined up behind Funk, as solid as the rock of Gibraltar. This roachback is evidence of the lost cause that Denen and West are championing.

Are we to have a repetition of electing a governor that we had in nominating a candidate for president last June, by fraud and misrepresentation? We expect to elect Mr. Funk, governor. Mr. West and Mr. Denen expect the same thing, or they would not resort to a roachback to bolster up their cause.

By order of the committee, Thomas Stevenson, Chairman.

"BUCKS" HOT BLAST

☐The heaters that produce more heat for less money than any stoves in the world.

☐There is no ordinary heater in the country that will successfully burn every fuel.

☐It takes more than ordinary stove construction to burn soft coal, including slack.

☐Soft coal is about one-half gas, and the ordinary stove that is supposed to burn successfully soft coal taking COLD AIR into its fire pot does not burn the gas. It goes up the chimney as waste fuel.

☐Experiment has proven, however, that HEATED AIR taken into its fire pot forms perfect combustion, burns this gas, cokes coal and thereby consumes all the heat producing material in soft coal, burning it into heat units.

☐"Bucks" Hot Blast Heater has a specially constructed fire pot that successfully burns all fuels, including slack.

☐The air is drawn into the fire pot through a heated duct which completely encircles it; this heated air is fed to the top of fuel surface, thereby consuming all gases.

☐Combustion takes place in a complete circle against the fire pot, highly heating the ENTIRE RADIATING SURFACE.

☐With "Buck" Hot Blast Heater you derive Base Burner results.

☐A highly heated base, surface that is ALL radiating surface and no waste fuel.

Our gift section will be ready this week.
